Mission Statement

Southern Methodist University strives for excellence in teaching, research and service. Within this mission, SMU's intercollegiate athletics program is an integral part of the institution and its educational programs. SMU is committed to maintaining an intercollegiate athletics program that reflects the attitudes and values underlying the University's overall mission: integrity, academic excellence, leadership, equity, diversity and success. An intercollegiate athletics program that reflects these values will contribute to the overall quality of the campus experience by fostering a sense of community and promoting institutional commitment on the part of student, faculty, staff and alumni.

SMU is committed to maintaining a successfully competitive intercollegiate athletics program that acts in concert with academic objectives and enriches the life of the institution. Accordingly, the intercollegiate athletics program should be conducted with respect, fairness, civility, honesty and responsibility. The student-athlete's activities are an integral part of the larger educational experience, enhancing his or her holistic development. The University will admit no student-athlete who does not demonstrate a reasonable likelihood of successfully completing a baccalaureate degree at SMU. To ensure that SMU's student-athletes have a reasonable opportunity to complete their baccalaureate degrees, the University will endeavor to provide the necessary and appropriate resources for academic support.

SMU will not discriminate in any employment practice, education program, or educational activity on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, age, disability, or veteran status. The Director of Affirmative Action has been designated to handle inquiries regarding the non-discrimination policies and may be contacted at SMU, Dallas TX 75275, 214-768-3601.

THIS IS SMU

A private university, SMU cultivates well-rounded leaders and thinkers through a liberal arts foundation and nationally competitive undergraduate, graduate and professional programs. The seven degree-granting schools are Dedman College of Humanities and Sciences, Cox School of Business, Meadows School of the Arts, School of Engineering, Dedman School of Law, Perkins School of Theology and the new School of Education and Human Development.

SMU has an enrollment of about 11,000. Students come from all 50 states and the District of Columbia, as well as nearly 100 other countries. Minority enrollment makes up more than 20 percent of the total student body. Small classes allow students to interact with distinguished faculty dedicated to teaching and creating new knowledge through research. Students have opportunities for research experience, international study, leadership development, community service and internships.

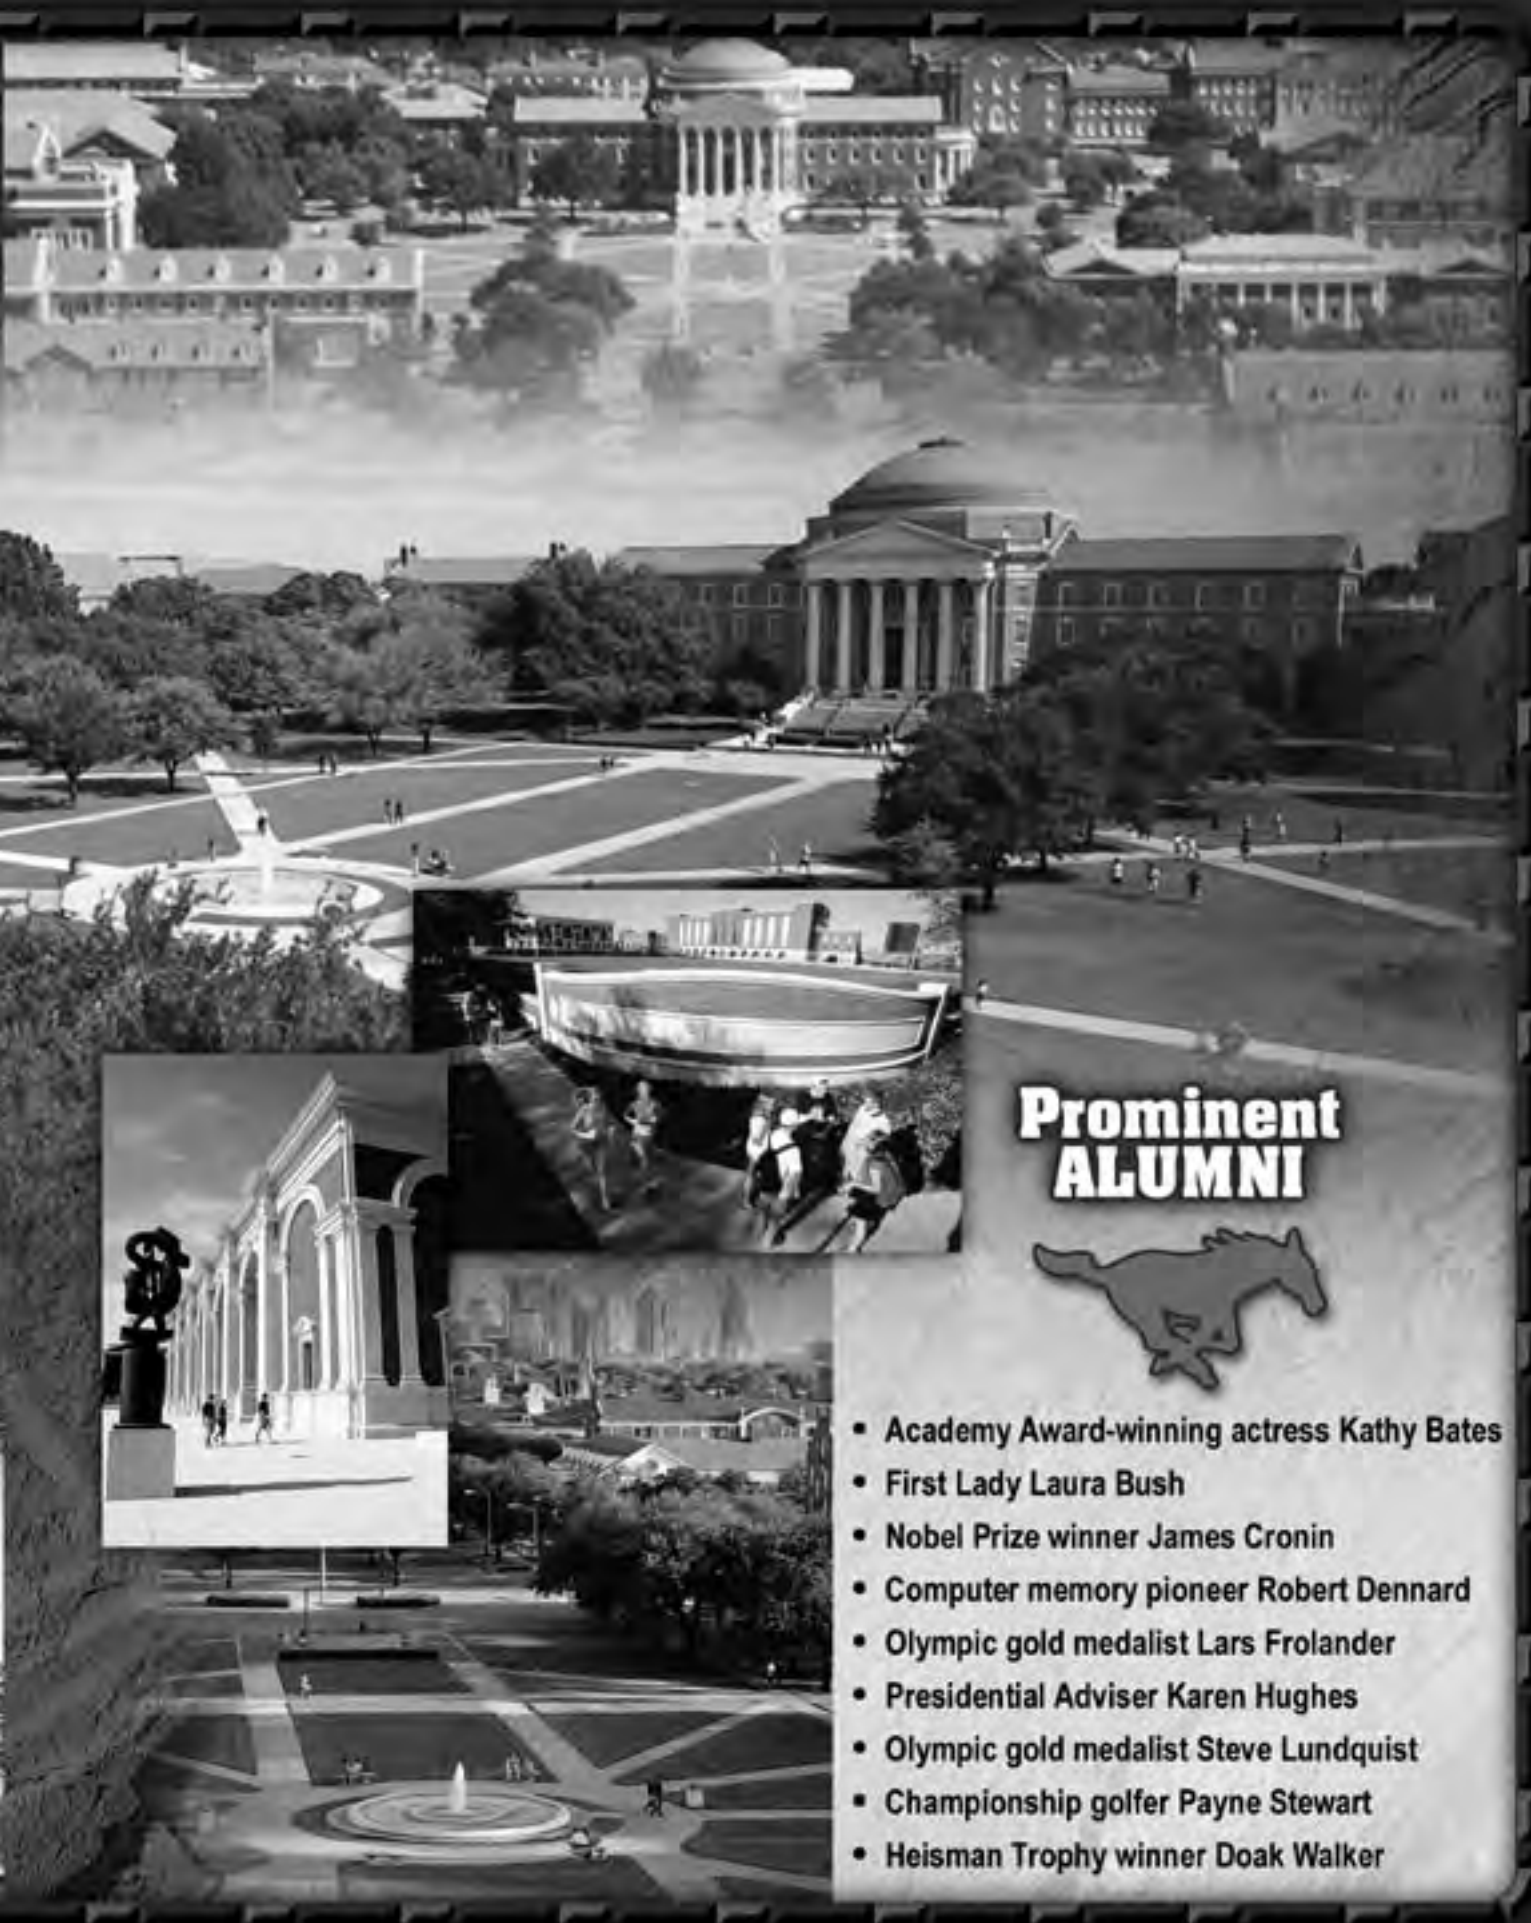

The SMU campus includes 76 buildings on 175 acres, five miles north of downtown Dallas. SMU-in-Legacy, located north of Dallas in Plano, offers noncredit and credit courses for adults and young people. The Dallas-Fort Worth area provides a platform for graduates to launch careers in a thriving center of commerce and culture.

Nearly 400 students participate each year in 24 international study programs offered in 13 countries throughout Europe and Asia and in Mexico and South America. SMU-in-Taos, a 295-acre campus in northern New Mexico, offers summer courses and includes excavation of a 13th-century Indian pueblo.

Founded in 1911 by what is now The United Methodist Church, SMU is nonsectarian in its teaching and committed to academic freedom and open inquiry. Dallas has supported SMU since its beginning, when local citizens pledged $300,000 to secure the University. In appreciation to the city, SMU named its first building Dallas Hall, which remains the University's symbol and centerpiece.

SMU GAMEDAY

Gameday at SMU

From the pregame tailgating on "The Boulevard" to the postgame celebration of an SMU win; from the opening kickoff to the last tick of the clock, nothing compares to the pageantry and excitement of Mustang football now that Pony home games have returned to the Hilltop. On a warm Saturday night in September or crisp day in November, fall Saturdays in Dallas mean only one thing - SMU football in Gerald J. Ford Stadium.

Kickoff may be in the afternoon or evening, but gameday on campus is an all-day affair on The Boulevard. Bishop Boulevard, which runs through the heart of the beautiful SMU campus, turns into a hub of activity for alumni, students, fans and friends of the school. Groups can bring a picnic, fire up a grill for a barbecue or visit food vendors that are stationed along The Boulevard. Local and regional bands play live music, and there are activities for children as well.

As tailgating festivities wind down, fans join in the Mustang Band's Grand March to Ford Stadium. Forty-five minutes before kickoff, the band marches from Dallas Hall down Bishop Boulevard, turns left on Schlegel Street and heads into Ford Stadium.

SMU home games have an all-day collegiate atmosphere as fans rekindle old relationships and establish new ones. By combining a great tradition with a new stadium and The Boulevard, SMU Football has established itself as THE way to spend a Saturday in Dallas.

Gerald J. Ford Stadium

In the history of the SMU football program, June 13, 1997 and September 2, 2000 may stand out as the most significant days since the program's inception in 1915.

The first date is when University officials announced that significant funds had been raised to begin construction on the brand new Gerald J. Ford Stadium.

The second is the date that Mustang football returned to campus with the inaugural game in the stadium against Kansas. The state-of-the-art facility would not have been possible without the generous donations of Gerald J. Ford, Lamar and Norma Hunt, Ray L. and Nancy Ann Hunt, and Sherrill and Jo Ann Pettus, all of whom are SMU alumni.

Gerald J. Ford Stadium, finished in August of 2000 on the former Ownby Stadium grounds, has a horseshoe configuration with an open south end zone adjacent to Mockingbird Lane. The architecture is consistent with the Collegiate-Georgian style of the entire SMU campus and features traditional yet state-of-the-art design concepts.

The stadium has a seating capacity of 32,000 with the possibility for future expansion to 45,000. The 32,000-seat configuration includes nearly 600 preferred club level seats and 240 seats in 24 spacious luxury suites housed in a custom, three-level press box. In addition to housing preferred club and suite seating, the air-conditioned press box provides excellent sightlines and comfortably accommodates more than 125 working print, radio and television media. The playing surface is 25 feet below ground level, with half of the stadium's seats sunk below grade, ensuring a smooth transition into the surrounding neighborhood and the remainder of the SMU campus.

Ford Stadium was designed by the sports and entertainment design division of Ellerbe Becket, Inc., an architectural firm based in Kansas City, Mo.

CONFERENCE USA

"We're very excited about this tremendous boost to our athletics program. Our University community, alumni, and other fans enjoy the vitality of traditional rivalries in our region. Conference USA membership has ushered in a new era of spirited competition and accomplishment for SMU."

C-USA TV EXPOSURE

C-USA enjoys significant television exposure through its partnerships with ESPN Inc. and College Sports Television Networks (CSTV). The league entered into a long-term agreement with CSTV, which provides C-USA with significant national and regional exposure for football, men's and women's basketball, and all other conference sports. Additionally, the CSTV agreement includes video-on-demand, Internet, broadband, national over-the-air and satellite radio, and wireless distribution as well as corporate marketing rights, and website production through CSTV Online. The agreement with ESPN extends the conference's current regular season football package to include the broadcast of the conference's Football Championship Game. It also encompasses distribution of men's basketball and women's basketball on ESPN/ESPN2 and both tournament championship games.

Excellence every day. For Conference USA, dedication to excellence is a common thread in athletics, academics and in the community, and the guiding initiative for the league's promising future. Conference USA features 12 nationally prominent, tradition-rich members in East Carolina, Houston, Marshall, Memphis, Rice, SMU, Southern Miss, Tulane, UAB, UCF and UTEP. This combination enhances men's and women's programs that are steeped in athletic success and academic prowess. Together, we are dedicated to excellence, integrity and leadership in athletics, academics and in our communities.

All C-USA institutions sponsor Division I-A football, along with several other men's and women's athletic programs, many of which compete regularly for NCAA Championships. C-USA sponsors competition in 19 sports - nine for men (baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, soccer, tennis and indoor and outdoor track and field) and 10 for women (basketball, cross country, golf, softball, soccer, swimming and diving, tennis, indoor and outdoor track and field and volleyball).

The league sponsors numerous academic awards, including the Commissioner's Honor Roll and the Commissioner's Academic Medal, indicative of outstanding achievement in the classroom. C-USA annually awards six postgraduate scholarships, along with the Sport Academic Award, Scholar Athletes of the Year and the Institutional Academic Excellence Award.

BOWL GAMES

C-USA BOWLS

Conference USA has agreements in place with six different bowl games for the 2006 season and is guaranteed a spot in five bowls.

The AutoZone Liberty Bowl will have the first selection of Conference USA teams to face an opponent from the SEC. The second selection belongs to the GMAC Bowl, which will pair a C-USA team against an opponent from the MAC or the WAC. The league will also provide teams for the Birmingham Bowl, Fort Worth Bowl and New Orleans Bowl this season.

C-USA also may provide a team for the Sheraton Hawaii Bowl if the Pac-10 is unable to supply a sixth bowl-eligible team for 2006 and C-USA has six or more bowl-eligible teams.

OFFENSIVE GREAT

Eric Dickerson (left), Lance McIlhenny (above) and Craig James (right) formed one of the most lethal backfields in college football history in the early 1980s. Nicknamed "The Pony Express," the trio led SMU to an 11-0-1 record in 1982, a Cotton Bowl victory and a National Championship.

Jonas Rutledge ended his career on the Hilltop in 2003 as SMU's all-time kickoff return yardage leader with 2,154 yards.

Don Meredith was a two-time All-America selection for SMU and went on to enjoy a successful NFL career with the Dallas Cowboys, and later as an announcer for ABC-TV's "Monday Night Football."

Keylon Kincade is one of only three SMU running backs in school history to record multiple 1,000-yard seasons.

Chuck Hixson ended his SMU career in 1970 as the Mustangs' all-time career record holder for passing yards, completions and TD passes.

Kyle Rote was an All-America running back for SMU in 1950 and went on to be inducted into the NFL Hall of Fame in 1964.

Doak Walker won the 1948 Heisman Trophy in his junior year at SMU. Walker went on to be named to the College Football and NFL Halls of Fame. The nation's top collegiate running back each year is awarded a trophy named after SMU's only Heisman winner.

Reggie Dupard was a 1985 All-American for the Ponies and rushed for 1,000 yards three consecutive seasons.

Jerry Levias accepted SMU's offer to become the first African-American football player to earn a scholarship in the Southwest Conference in the 1960s. Levias went on to earn All-America honors in 1968 and was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2003.

With 235 career catches, Jason Wolf holds both the SMU and Southwest Conference records.

DEFENSIVE GREATS

Bill Forester was a two-time All-SWC pick and went on to enjoy an 11-year career with the Green Bay Packers.

The leading tackler in school history with 649 stops, Putt Choate was a two-time All-SWC choice. He played three years (1983-85) in the USFL and one year with the Green Bay Packers in 1987.

The all-time sack leader in Mustang history, Luke Johnson was a two-time All-WAC selection.

One of the fastest players in school history, Rod Jones was a first-round draft pick in the 1986 NFL Draft. A track standout as well, Jones was a member of SMU's 1986 national championship squad before spending nine seasons in the NFL.

Russell Carter earned All-America honors in 1983 and is SMU's career interception leader with 18 picks. Carter spent six seasons with the Jets and Raiders in the NFL (1984-89).

One of the most decorated student-athletes in school history, Michael Carter won a silver medal in the shot put at the 1984 Summer Olympics. An All-SWC pick in 1983, Carter went on to become a three-time Pro Bowl selection in the NFL.

Gary Moten won All-SWC honors in 1981 and 1982 and finished his career second on the all-time tackles chart with 455 career stops. Moten played professionally in the CFL and NFL for five years.

Jerry Ball was a three-time All-SWC pick at nose tackle from 1984-86. A three-time Pro Bowl selection in the NFL, Ball played 12 years in the league.

Chris Bordano was the 1997 WAC Mountain Division Defensive Player of the Year. A three-time all-conference pick, Bordano ranks fifth among SMU's career tacklers with 420.

Louie Kelcher earned All-America honors and was named SWC Defensive Player of the Year in 1974. Kelcher enjoyed a standout NFL career that spanned 10 seasons.

A three-time All-SWC performer (1964-66), John LaGrone was selected to the All-America and Academic All-America teams in 1966.

MUSTANGS IN THE PROS

Michael Carter played eight seasons with the San Francisco 49ers.

Kevin Garrett played defensive back for the St. Louis Rams from 2003-2005 and is now with the Kansas City Chiefs.

Alvin Nnabuike signed a free agent contract with the Oakland Raiders in 2006.

Donald Mitchell has played for the Tennessee Titans and Dallas Cowboys.

Eric Dickerson ranks as one of the all-time best backs in NFL history and rushed for over 2,000 yards in a season as a member of the Los Angeles Rams.

Kris Briggs has spent time with Green Bay, Cleveland, Atlanta and Denver since graduating from SMU.

Albert Johnson has seen time with the New York Jets and Miami Dolphins since leaving the Hilltop.

Reggie Dupard enjoyed a five-year career with the New England Patriots and Washington Redskins after leaving SMU.

Jacoby Rhinehart has played for the Arizona Cardinals since departing SMU in 1999.

Craig James enjoyed a successful NFL career with the New England Patriots before becoming a television personality.

Chris Cunningham competed in the CFL with the Toronto Argonauts in 2004-05.

Defensive tackle Jerry Ball enjoyed a Pro Bowl career after finishing at SMU in 1986.

Jonas Rutledge played with the Tennessee Titans in 2004.

2004 graduate Sterling Harris signed with the Cleveland Browns.

Josh McCown started at quarterback for the Arizona Cardinals in 2004-05 and is now with the Detroit Lions.

Louie Kelcher played for 10 years in the NFL after starring as a Mustang.

SMU

in the

SMU players have gone on to have successful careers in the National Football League, American Football League, Canadian Football League, NFL Europe, Arena Football League, U.S. Football League and World Football League.

The Mustangs have five NFL Hall of Fame members: Raymond Berry, Eric Dickerson, Forrest Gregg, Lamar Hunt and Doak Walker.

Many Ponies have made the transition from the playing field to the television booth, including Eric Dickerson, Craig James and Don Meredith.

LOYD ALL-SPORTS CENTER

All-Sports Center

The Paul B. Loyd, Jr. All-Sports Center, which is attached to the northwest corner of Gerald J. Ford Stadium, is a 72,000 square-foot structure providing all Mustang student-athletes with several improvements over old facilities, including:

- Offices and locker facilities for football and several Olympic sports
- A state-of-the-art, 10,000 square-foot weight room featuring Olympic free weight machines and cardiovascular equipment
- A sports medicine complex
- Conference rooms, including a modern theater-style meeting room for all SMU sports
- A modern equipment room which provides easy access to the playing field and houses expanded laundry and storage areas in order to serve all sports residing in the facility
- Ticket facilities, including ticket windows and offices, as well as working and waiting areas

Sports Medicine

The SMU athletic training program features first-class facilities inside the Paul B. Loyd, Jr. All-Sports Center and the outstanding services of leading sports medicine and health care professionals. Football trainers Mike Morton and Warren Young and the rest of the SMU training staff members work together with physicians to design rehabilitation programs for injured student-athletes to minimize the loss of fitness during recuperative time.

Under the direction of SMU Head Trainer and 2006 All-American Football Foundation Trainer of the Year Jeanne Olson, Morton and Young are assisted by full-time, certified trainers Kelli Clay, Zack McLeese and Bill Currie.

Equipment Room

The SMU equipment staff handles all of the ordering and inventory of athletic gear for the football team and oversees the team's equipment, locker and team meeting rooms. Director Ed Davidson supervises an operation that custom fits all Mustang football players for pads, shoes, uniforms and helmets. The equipment staff's facilities inside of the Paul B. Loyd, Jr. All-Sports Center are among the best in the country.

SALVINO STRENGTH & CONDITIONING CENTER

Salvino Strength & Conditioning Center

The SMU strength and conditioning staff, led by head strength & conditioning coach Chuck Faucette, train Mustang student-athletes in the Vic and Gladie Jo Salvino Strength & Conditioning Center - a state-of-the-art, 10,000-square-foot weight room featuring Olympic free weight machines and cardiovascular equipment inside the Paul B. Loyd, Jr. All-Sports Center.

The Salvino Strength and Conditioning Center opened in August of 2000 and is considered one of the finest of its kind in the nation.

"At SMU, the emphasis of our strength and conditioning program is on speed, quickness and explosive power. We accomplish this with a program of Olympic lifts, various plyometric drills and sport specific exercises. We want to do things in the weight room that will transfer over to the football field. Not only do we develop your strength and conditioning, but your mental toughness as well. At this level, everyone is going to be big, fast and strong. Mental toughness is what will separate SMU players from the pack and allow you to be successful."

ALTSHULER LEC

Academic support for SMU's varsity athletes is coordinated through the Altshuler Learning Enhancement Center, which opened its doors to the student population in 1989 and has become one of the University's most widely-used student services.

The A-LEC contains the Blanton Academic Development Complex, including three state-of-the-art, fully-networked computer labs; six private rooms for both individual and small group study; an extensive library of audio, video and digital resources; and a large lounge area.

The A-LEC's content-specific services include tutoring, study groups, review sessions and the Writing Center. At the Writing Center, students receive help with the process of drafting and revising a specific project, as well as assistance with grammar, organization and style.

Understanding the distinctive challenges and unique experiences facing student-athletes, the A-LEC's Academic Counselors are responsible for tracking and responding to student-athlete needs at each stage of the academic calendar. The Academic Counselors' work includes pre-advising student-athletes during summer orientation and registration sessions, meeting with all student-athletes to discuss each semester's academic support needs and conferring with coaches to determine which student-athletes should be recommended for more closely monitored academic assistance.

Refined Graduation Rates Among Conference USA and Area Schools

REN & RUTH ALTSHULER LEARNING ENHANCEMENT CENTER

LEC Mission Statement

The mission of the A-LEC's academic counseling staff is to create a supportive educational environment that assists student-athletes with their transition to the university culture, to guide student-athletes in becoming responsible for their learning by teaching skills that help them identify and pursue their educational goals, and to encourage student-athletes to develop and apply the skills and abilities that will expand their range of personal and professional choices and reinforce the commitment to life-long learning.

SMU received the American Football Coaches Association's 2006 Academic Achievement Award when the football program recorded a 100 percent graduation rate when all members of its freshman class of 2000-2001 earned a degree. Although it topped the list for the first time, SMU has been honored in the honorable mention category 11 times through the years (1987, 1994, 1995, 1996, 1997, 1998, 2000, 2001, 2002, 2003, 2005).

PALS PROGRAM

One of the most successful career development programs for college student-athletes in the country, the SMU PALS program celebrates its 11th anniversary this fall. Since its inception in 1995, PALS has produced the results to show that SMU not only "talks the talk" about its commitment to the program's acronym - Preparing Achievers for Lifetime Success - it also "walks the walk."

A total of 1,039 student-athletes - including 390 football players - have joined PALS voluntarily in the past decade. They have acquired 1,870 positions, including 493 full-time jobs, 967 summer internships and 410 part-time positions during the academic year. Football players have obtained 139 of those permanent spots.

More than 100 local companies have signed up to be corporate partners with the PALS program. Their involvement ranges from serving as sources for informational interviews to full-time jobs.

"We want to help SMU," says Sewell Automotive general manger Rick Cowart, a football letterwinner at SMU from 1975-77. "Our more selfish goal is to find people who we can employ in the future. If we can bring in interns and summer help and show them how we want to do business, it will be a whole lot easier to recruit them."

Senior Associate A.D. Ed Wisneski created the PALS program. He has worked at SMU since 1988 and built a lot of contacts during his 18 years in Dallas. "A lot of the football players I know from the late 1980s and 1990s are now in positions to hire SMU student-athletes," Wisneski points out.

"One of the main reasons I was asked to start a career development program 11 years ago was to give SMU athletes a level playing field with non-athletes who do not devote 20 hours a week to a sport and have more time to hunt for jobs and internships. One aspect of PALS that makes it unique among all college athletic career assistance programs is the wide range of services we offer within the athletic department: resume preparation, interviewing skills, company research and contacts, registration for computerized job searches, and placement in jobs."

"Most athletic programs offer those services through their school career centers," Wisneski adds. "We work closely with the SMU Career Center; but with fewer students to service, the PALS program can provide more individualized attention to personally market each student-athlete to potential employers."

Another distinction of PALS is that former SMU student-athletes who either have been out in the work force or are retiring from professional sports careers can still take advantage of its services. "I work with a lot of former SMU athletes who have lost their jobs through downsizing or who want to change careers," Wisneski says. "It's reassuring for them to be able to contact someone familiar at their alma mater whom they know will try to help them... after they have graduated."

In addition to career planning and placement, the PALS program provides personal development education for all student-athletes. For the past several years, the PALS program has presented a workshop on alcohol and other drugs risk reduction. Other personal development programming for SMU athletes has included nationally-renowned speakers on sports nutrition, sexual assault & harassment, and the dangers of gambling.

"We know after football we will have to go out and work somewhere. PALS has given us a chance to take advantage of opportunities because it's tough for an athlete to devote the same time looking into jobs as a student not involved in extracurricular activities."

SMU
FOOTBALL

2006 OUTLOOK

MUSTANG OUTLOOK

In 2005, the SMU Mustangs stamped to new heights. SMU posted its highest win total in eight seasons, a win over a ranked team for the first time since 1986, a 3-1 record against Bowl teams, and a three-game win streak to end the season - SMU's longest since 1999. Seven Mustangs were named All-Conference USA and two were tabbed freshmen All-Americans.

As 2006 approaches, expectations are at their highest level in decades. The parity of the league makes a conference championship and a bowl-game bid attainable goals this season, but the Mustangs do face questions at key positions - questions that must be addressed if the Mustang program is to continue its growth into a football power.

QUARTERBACKS

Perhaps the biggest question mark is at quarterback, as SMU returns no signal caller that has ever taken a Division I snap.

At the top of the preseason depth chart is Justin Willis, a blue-chip redshirt freshman from Denton. Willis impressed coaches with his scout-team work in 2005 and his spring play in 2006, but the 6-1 signal caller has not seen game action since his last prep game in 2004. Willis did, however, firmly entrench himself as the favorite to win the job entering the fall.

Also getting looks will be redshirt frosh Eric Johnson and junior college transfer Corey Slater. Johnson made strides as a true freshman last season before suffering a hand injury late in the season, and Slater had an impressive season as a freshman at Dixie State Junior College in Utah. Both were solid in spring drills.

"It all starts with the quarterback, and we've got to find that guy," SMU head coach Phil Bennett said. "We have several guys that are capable, but we have to find who is most consistent."

RUNNING BACKS

Whoever wins the starting job will get considerable help from SMU's returning talent at the skill positions, as the Mustang starters at running back, wide receiver and tight end are all All-Conference-level players.

At running back, DeMyron Martin returns after a freshman All-America campaign in which he gained the third-most yards ever for an SMU freshman.

"After watching the cut-ups, DeMyron was probably even better last season than I thought he was," Bennett said. "His vision and pad level were great, but there are a ton of things he will tell you he needs to improve."

Joining Martin in the backfield will be a slew of talented runners - Cedrick Dorsey, Johnnie Fitzgerald, Jessie Henderson, James Mapps and Fred Turner, among others.

"Johnnie gives us another dimension at running back," Bennett said. "He and DeMyron are different types of backs and they keep defenses on their toes. We'll mix in the other guys as well and Cedrick is going to become our third-down back. We still think Fred Turner and Jessie Henderson can do some things back there, and we are going to find packages to get them the ball. We also have a freshman that we're very high on - James Mapps. I think he can be a special player. We've got a lot of talented guys back there and the guys that produce are the guys that are going to play."

TIGHT ENDS

Tight end is another stacked position for SMU, where All-Conference performer Ryan Kennedy and former prep All-American Vincent Chase are joined by redshirt frosh Jeff Brock.

"Getting the ball to our tight ends more is a must," Bennett declared. "Ryan and Vincent are too good not to utilize them. We've got to find ways to get them the ball. That is one of the things that we have looked at all off-season."

WIDE RECEIVERS

At receiver, SMU returns a wealth of experience as all four slated starters return from last season. Bobby Chase, Columbus Givens, Reynaldo Pellerin and Blake Warren are listed as SMU's top four, but they are followed closely by Jay'Mond Cleveland, Joseph Ferguson, Emmanuel Sanders and Zack Sledge.

"Bobby Chase made several big plays for us last season," Bennett said. "He's a fantastic team guy, and he's really consumed with getting better. He's a playmaker - he makes plays when we need them."

"Columbus Givens and Emmanuel Sanders both have exceptional quickness and an amazing ability to run after the catch. If they catch the ball on the run, defenses had better watch out. I think we have a lot of talent at receiver."

Bobby Chase leads a talented receiving corps into the 2006 season.

OFFENSIVE LINE

Of course any offensive success is predicated on strong offensive line play.

"I think having Darrin Johnson, Ben Poynter and Caleb Peveto helped our two new starters - Tommy Poynter and Kenard Burley - continue their development this spring," stated the head coach. "We're looking to improve our depth and play two different lines this year. I think it keep your backups working hard, knowing they are going to play, and it gives your first team the chance to stay fresh and get a different perspective on what defenses are trying up front."

Overall, Bennett acknowledges the stat that matters most is, of course, scoring.

"To win in this league, you've got to be able to score 28-30 points a game," he declared. "We were very good red-zone offense last season, but a lot of that had to do with our ability to kick field goals. We've got to get more touchdowns than field goals in the red zone."

Bennett's forte, however, has always been defense, where SMU has to replace five key starters.

LINEBACKERS

At linebacker, SMU loses three-year starters D.D. Lee and Alvin Nnabuife, each of whom played big parts in the Mustangs' 2005 successes. Two-year starter Wilton McCray returns, though, as does part-time starter Reggie Carrington.

"We've thought Reggie Carrington could be an All-Conference player ever since he got here," Bennett said. "Last year he stayed healthy, played a little over a third of the time and played well. He's a heck of a playmaker, but he does have big shoes to fill. Wilton McCray is a two-year starter and I expect him to get better at WILL. We've got a new guy at SAM, Tony Hawkins. We moved Tony to linebacker this spring and he made an impact. He brings a lot of speed to that spot. One of the things about my system is you don't have to be big, but you have to be able to run and I think these guys can do that. We'll back those guys up with Will Bonilla, Paul Hiemenz and Damon Hurst. They all got better this spring. We've got some guys that understand our system, and I think linebacker can be a strength for us."

Reggie Carrington will be counted on at linebacker for the Mustangs.

DEFENSIVE LINE

In the trenches, SMU brings back a pair of All-Conference players in Adrian Haywood and Justin Rogers. The tandem dominated offensive lines a year ago and should be even better in 2006. Bennett, however, also sang the praises of their linemates – Brandon Bonds and Cory Muse.

"Last year, Justin Rogers and Adrian Haywood got a lot of attention, but I think Cory Muse and Brandon Bonds made it easier for those guys. They're all good football players. I thought Brandon had his best season yet and Cory came off knee surgery to have a great season when Don Stansbury got hurt. Our front four was about as good as anybody in the conference. Last year we were able to sub in at tackle with Randy Denman. We've got to be able to do that at end as well. Troy Therien and Patrick Handy have to give us that depth."

After a stellar junior season, Adrian Haywood will look to continue his dominance on the defensive line.

SECONDARY

The secondary, though, has the most holes as the Mustangs lose both corners and their free safety. The lone returnee, however, was an All-League player a year ago – strong safety Joe Sturdivant.

"Joe was great last season and I think he'll be even better this season," Bennett said. "Joe is a self-made football player. He has learned so much. He just absorbs what you coach. He watches tape. He won the UAB game for us by reading routes and calling things out. He's very passionate about SMU and very passionate about being a good football player."

"At safety, we have Randall Goode, who played some last year and has gotten better. He'll be backed up by Bryce Hudman, a very athletic guy who was a medical redshirt last year. I think they're both talented."

"At corner, Jonathan Lindley played a lot a year ago and David Haynes got in quite a bit as well. We'll have Cortley Blackmon and Devin Lowery, who we're moving over to defense, as backups. I think that we have some athletes there. We found our niche in our coverage schemes last year and we got better. We became a team that gave up very few big plays. We made people earn what they got and that is the kind of team we are going to have to be this year, too."

All-Leaguer Joe Sturdivant is SMU's lone returning starter in the secondary.

SPECIAL TEAMS

Coaches also preach the importance of special teams where SMU will have to replace two four-year starters – kicker Chris McMurtry and punter Ryan Mentzel.

"Chris and Ryan were key for us last year and finding guys who can perform under pressure will be important. At punter we've got Thomas Morstead, who was with us last season. That's one of the things that is different about our program now. These guys have been waiting their turn, when, in the past, they had to play from the minute they got on campus."

"Morstead is our placekicker right now, too, but Kellis Cunningham is coming in this fall and will get an opportunity."

In the return game, SMU is loaded with Blake Warren on punts and 2005 freshman All-American Jessie Henderson on kickoffs.

"Blake and Jessie are weapons," said Bennett. "If you look at our field position last year, they were big for us. I think Jessie will get better and better. We've got to help Blake more this season. People didn't kick as much to Blake last year, so we're looking at putting two returners back, so they can't kick away from us. Before he leaves here, Blake will have our punt return record."

"I'm excited about the season," said Bennett. "If you look at how close we were last season, it's clear that we're improving as a football team. Now we just have to take that next step. I think that we'll take that step this season."

PHIL BENNETT

Head Coach
Fifth Season • Texas A&M, '78

After guiding SMU to its highest win total in eight seasons in 2005, SMU head coach Phil Bennett is poised to take the Mustang program to even greater heights in the future.

Bennett has Mustang fans as excited about the football program as they have been in decades. The 2005 season was full of highlights like SMU's first win over a ranked team since 1986, a 3-1 record against Bowl teams, and a three-game win streak to end the season - SMU's longest since 1999. Seven Mustangs were named All-Conference USA and two were tabbed freshman All-Americans as national media outlets have taken notice of SMU. ESPN, CBSSportline, CSTV and FoxSports all sang the praises of SMU and Bennett in 2005.

SMU is approaching its "highest point (in) two decades," says CollegeFootballNews.com. The Mustangs "proved this year that they can compete with anyone in their new conference," the article continued. "And unlike his first couple of years in Big D, a whole different caliber of recruit may now be willing to hear (Coach Bennett's) pitch."

The last note is especially exciting to Mustang fans since Bennett has hauled in SMU's best recruiting classes in years with each crop of signees being considered among the best in the conference. His work has earned him "Top Recruiter" honors in the league from various publications since his arrival at SMU.

For his efforts, Bennett was awarded a contract extension in January of 2006 that will keep him on the Hilltop through at least the 2009 season.

"Our goal is to win championships," said former SMU AD Jim Copeland when announcing the extension. "Our strong finish to the 2005 season only strengthened my belief that Phil Bennett is the man who will lead us to Conference USA titles and bowl games in the years to come."

Bennett has had the SMU program moving in the right direction ever since becoming the 15th head coach in SMU football history on Dec. 5, 2001.

A Marshall, Texas, native, Bennett always has had a special fondness for SMU, going all the way back to his senior year in high school. As a highly regarded linebacker prospect, he was being recruited by all of the schools in the Southwest Conference and made an official visit to the Hilltop.

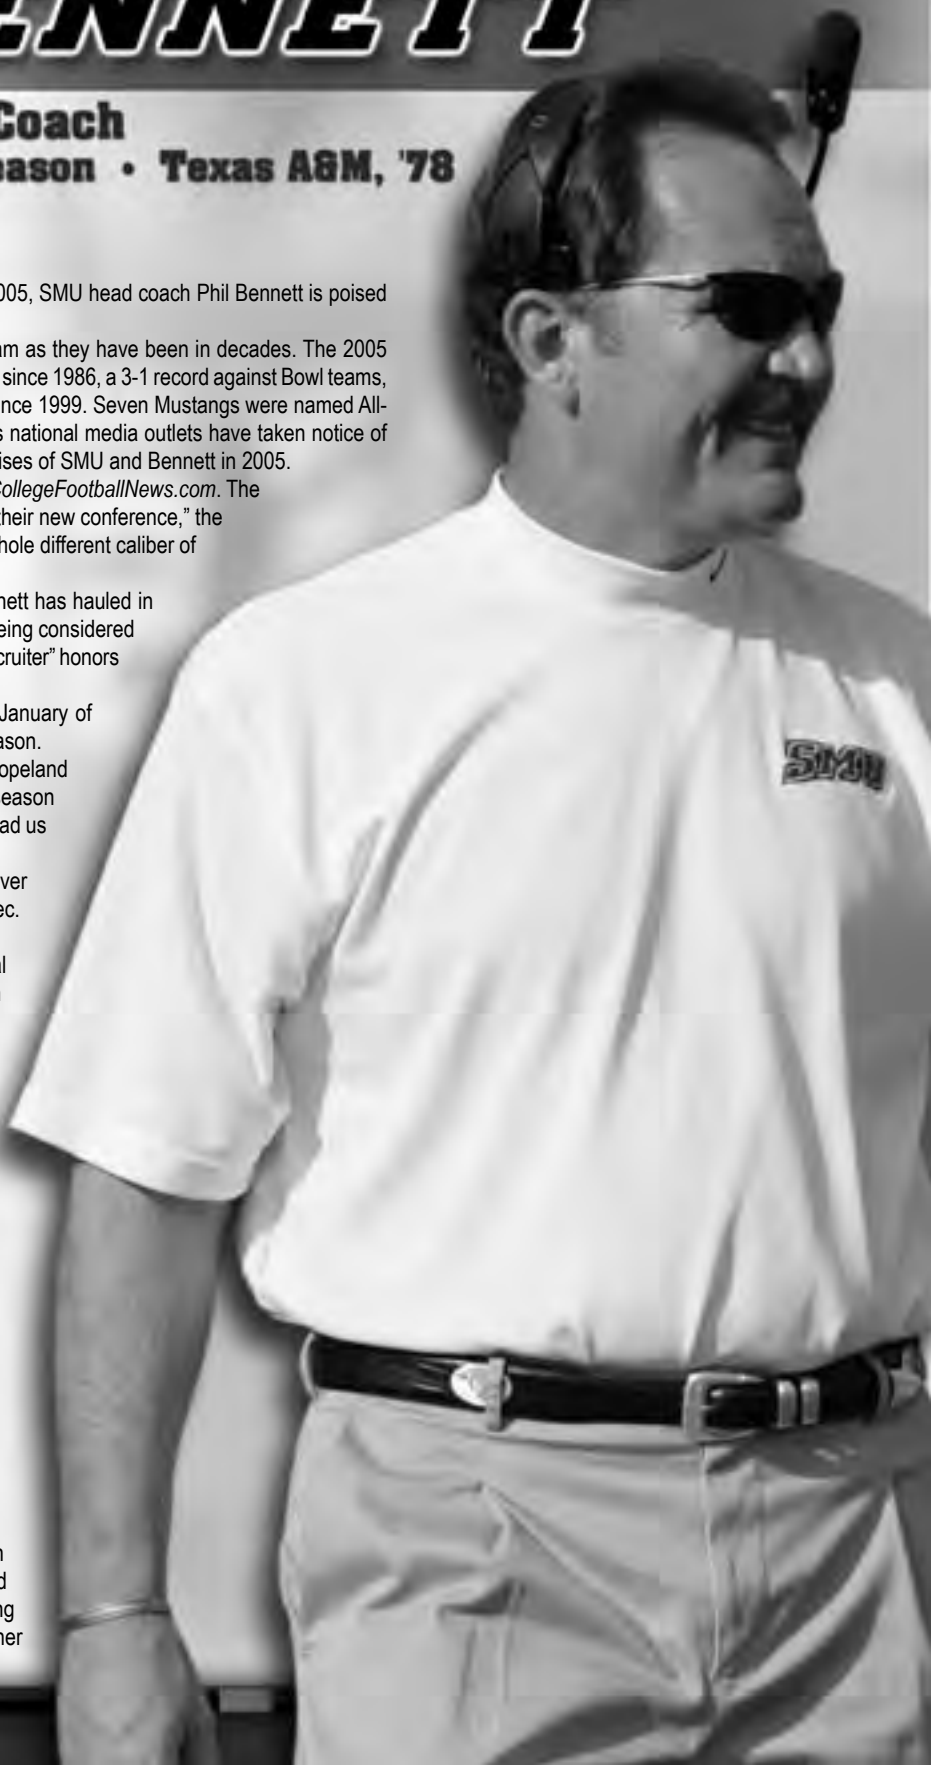

"When I came back from SMU, I told my mother that's where I wanted to go to school," Bennett said at his hiring. "My mom wanted me to go to Texas A&M and that is where I ended up. SMU made an impression on me though and it was never lost on me."

"When I got into coaching, I always kept an eye on SMU. I always thought there would be a time and place where we would meet. This is the right job at the right time for me. Dreams do come true because I am here at SMU."

Bennett gained his coaching reputation as one of the premier defensive coordinators in the nation during the 10 years prior to his arrival at SMU. From 1999-2001, he guided Kansas State's defense to national rankings of third, fourth and second, respectively. He was particularly proud of his 2001 defense when the Wildcats had lost eight starters on defense from the previous season.

When Bennett arrived at SMU, he got Mustang backers as excited as they have been about the program in recent memory.

He boldly stated on his first day on the job that his goal is to win a conference championship, winning praise from his players and Mustang supporters. He has put together an outstanding coaching staff with deep ties to Texas. Every assistant coach on staff is either a native or has coached and recruited the Lone Star state. Those ties have reaped big rewards in recruiting as the Mustangs have been able to sign some of the state's top players during his tenure.

His annual spring coaches' clinic is attended by more than 250 high school coaches from around the region, and SMU's Spring game is now a recruiting event as more than 200 recruits and their families have toured Ford Stadium and the Loyd All-Sports Center before each season.

Bennett's infectious personality and can-do attitude have not only captured the attention of his players but also SMU students and supporters. He has toured fraternity and sorority houses during the spring to drum up student support and has been a fixture on the Dallas and SMU alumni speaking circuits since taking the job.

"One of the first things that struck me in our initial conversation was how prepared he was," said Copeland. "He knew our history, our players, our recruits, the league. He was very impressive in that initial meeting.

"We talked for about two hours and I left thinking, 'I can't be this enthusiastic about the guy this early in the process.' He has a personality that just grabs you. He has never met a stranger."

And SMU was no stranger to Bennett, who is now leading the Mustang football program back to prominence.

Coaching Experience: Entering his fifth season as the SMU head coach... Led SMU to its best record in eight seasons with a 5-6 campaign in 2005... ## 2005 GAME RECAPS

Tony Eckert started at quarterback for SMU and was 6-of-18 for 64 yards and a touchdown as the Mustangs made Baylor battle to earn a 28-23 win on Saturday night.

Backup Jerad Romo played most of the game at quarterback and was 3-of-8 for 42 yards, but ran 14 times for a team-best 82 yards, including a 21-yard touchdown. Richuel Massey gained 64 yards on eight carries, with a 19-yard TD run.

The Bears made things hard on themselves by failing to score on first-half drives that began at SMU's 13, 20 and 28. However, they snapped out of it to go 93 yards on their go-ahead drive midway through the fourth quarter, with Mosley going around the right side of the line for the final yard and a 21-14 lead.

Baylor appeared on the verge of giving it back by fumbling a punt at its 19, but the Mustangs - who haven't beaten a non-conference foe since 2000 - managed only a field goal. The Bears answered with an 80-yard drive that Mosley capped with a 12-yard TD run, making it 28-17.

SMU scored again with 19 seconds left, but missed a 2-point conversion, a fitting ending to a game that also featured a blocked punt, a blocked field goal, a fumbled kickoff and two interceptions by Baylor quarterback Shawn Bell, who had thrown only one in his 17-game career and none in a school-record 159 passes coming in.

Baylor rallied by going to a ground game and wearing out SMU. The Bears ran 16 times in the first half, then 29 over the last two quarters. They finished with 215 rushing yards, with Brandon Whitaker gaining a team-high 110.

Bell was 23-of-40 for 198 yards with the two interceptions and no touchdowns.

DeMyron Martin ran for two touchdowns and caught a 22-yard touchdown pass, leading SMU past No. 22 TCU 21-10 Saturday night for the Mustangs' most important victory since coming off the death penalty in 1989. SMU had not beaten a ranked team since Oct. 11, 1986.

When the game ended a few minutes before midnight, hundreds of SMU students - some of them born after that last victory over a ranked team - jumped down a roughly 7-foot wall and streamed onto the field, forcing the Horned Frogs to go around them to get to their locker room.

The Horned Frogs had beaten the Mustangs six straight times, their longest streak in a series that dates to 1915. Now SMU finally gets back the "Iron Skillet" given to the winner of this Dallas-Fort Worth matchup - and they can keep it until at least 2007 because the rivalry goes on hiatus next season.

Martin ran 26 times for 118 yards, with scores of 9 and 2 yards. He caught two passes for 30 more. Jerad Romo was 11-of-21 for 101 yards with no interceptions in his first start.

TCU's Tye Gunn was incomplete on his first seven passes - well, his fourth throw was caught by an SMU defender - and he finished 16-of-36 for 134 yards with three pickoffs, two in the closing minutes. He also lost 21 yards on five runs.

Even the kicking game let the Horned Frogs down. Peter LoCoco missed three of four field goal tries, including a 31-yarder that could've made it 14-13 in the third quarter.

Martin's first rushing touchdown and his TD catch shortly before halftime gave SMU a 14-3 lead. It was already the most points the Mustangs had scored against the Horned Frogs since 1997.

TCU seemed to snap out of it when Cory Rodgers took the opening kickoff of the third quarter 86 yards for a touchdown. Instead, it was false hope. The Horned Frogs were called for offsides on the ensuing kickoff and things only got worse.

LoCoco missed his 31-yarder on the next drive and the following drive ended on downs near midfield. After going three-and-out and punting, the defense gave up its third TD drive of at least 79 yards - and, like the first one, TCU helped SMU with a penalty that kept the Mustangs from having to punt.

TCU's final four drives ended on a fumble, two interceptions and an incompletion on fourth-and-7.

Reggie McNeal set a school record with 449 total yards, throwing for 349 yards and running for 100 in just three quarters to lead Texas A&M to a 66-8 win over SMU.

The Aggies led 24-8 at halftime and scored on six consecutive possessions in the second half to stretch the lead. The victory extends A&M's streak of wins in home openers to 18.

A week after SMU upset TCU, the Mustangs managed to stay with the Aggies for one half.

Texas A&M took advantage of four SMU turnovers, a struggling running game and consistently poor tackling, which turned several short passes into big gains.

McNeal had touchdown passes of 80, 68, 32 and 47 yards in the third quarter. He also threw a 15-yard touchdown pass in the second quarter.

Texas A&M's offense started slowly, with the special teams putting the first points on the board. Amos Gbunblee blocked an SMU punt midway through the first quarter, and Jaxson Appel recovered for a touchdown.

SMU's only touchdown came at the end of the first quarter when Jerad Romo found Bobby Chase down the sideline for a 67-yard score on third-and-19. The extra point failed, and the Aggies maintained their lead.

Romo finished 18-of-31 with one interception for a career-high 243 yards. A week after running for 118 yards and two touchdowns in his college debut against TCU, DeMyron Martin was a non-factor, gaining 8 yards on as many carries.

SMU managed just 39 yards rushing and 14 first downs to 309 yards rushing and 31 first downs for Texas A&M.

After SMU's touchdown, McNeal spun away from an SMU defender and coasted 63 yards for the longest run of his career and the score.

The Tulane football team's sanctuary in the days after Hurricane Katrina became the site of its first victory in 2005.

Lester Ricard completed 22 of 34 passes for 213 yards and two touchdowns as the Green Wave returned to the SMU campus and beat the Mustangs 31-10.

Tulane made a temporary home in Dallas after Katrina flooded New Orleans and closed the school indefinitely. The Green Wave watched SMU's season-opening loss to Baylor in the same stadium.

Running back Matt Forte had a pair of 12-yard touchdown runs in the first half as Tulane built a 14-0 lead. Forte led all rushers with 87 yards on 22 carries.

Tulane kept the ball twice as long as SMU, finishing with more than 40 minutes of possession time.

The Green Wave took advantage of good field position on both first-half scoring drives.

Forte accounted for 30 rushing yards on a 52-yard drive to the first score, and the second scoring drive covered just 24 yards after a 47-yard punt return by Sean Lucas. Forte scored on a handoff up the middle with 1:14 left in the first half.

SMU, which was making its Conference USA debut, had only three first downs in the first half and finished the game with 127 yards total offense.

Mustangs quarterback Jerad Romo was just 4-of-11 for 25 yards, and the Green Wave defense had nine sacks.

The teams combined for 17 points in a span of just 23 seconds in the fourth quarter, a burst that ended with Tulane holding a 24-10 lead.

After Jacob Hartgroves' 24-yard field goal with 11:23 left in the game, SMU's Jesse Henderson fumbled the kickoff, and Tulane's Ray Boudreaux recovered at the SMU 16. Ricard connected with Demarcus Davis on the next play.

Henderson atoned for his earlier mistake by returning the next kick 88 yards for a touchdown, SMU's first kickoff return for a score since 2001.

SMU had an earlier touchdown on a return nullified by a penalty. In the second quarter, Mustangs defensive back Rolando Humphrey intercepted Ricard in the back of the end zone and went more than 100 yards the other way. But the Mustangs were called for an illegal block in the back.

Ricard's other touchdown was a 27-yarder to Bubba Terranova that completed the scoring in the fourth quarter.

After throwing for 314 yards on 34-of-60 passing, Bernie Morris ran for two late TDs - including the game winner in overtime - to lead Marshall over SMU 16-13.

Marshall was held scoreless through three quarters before charging back to tie the game at 10-10 late in the fourth quarter.

Kicker Chris McMurtray's line-drive 40-yard field goal gave SMU the overtime lead, but Morris responded with a 15-yard scramble to win the game for Marshall.

SMU had only seven first downs in the game, but led 10-0 midway through the fourth quarter. That's when a 15-play Marshall drive led to the Thundering Herd's first score: a 24-yard field goal by Ian O'Connor, who had missed two earlier attempts of 26 and 43 yards.

The 69-yard drive was almost for naught when Morris appeared to fumble the ball on SMU's 7-yard line. But the referees ruled that the ball had come loose in a passing attempt, whistling the ball dead.

SMU could not advance the ball on the next possession, and Morris again led Marshall down the field, culminating in a 4-yard touchdown run to tie the game with 1:30 remaining.

Jerad Romo was 10-of-22 for 151 yards passing for the Mustangs, with a 7-yard touchdown pass to Reynaldo Pellerin in the second quarter. SMU's second quarterback Tony Eckert was injured in the first half and did not return.

Bobby Chase caught a 31-yard touchdown pass from Jerad Romo as time expired to give SMU a stunning 28-27 victory over UAB.

UAB led, 27-22, when the Blazers' Parker Mullins punted into the end zone to give SMU the ball on its own 20-yard-line with 23 seconds left.

Romo completed a 20-yard pass to Chase, an 8-yarder to DeMyron Martin and 19-yarder to Reynaldo Pellerin. That put the Mustangs on the UAB 31-yard line with three seconds to play.

As the final seconds ticked off, Romo lofted a pass toward the left corner of the end zone. UAB had several defenders in the area, but Chase came down with the ball for the touchdown.

SMU players stormed the field in celebration, while several UAB players fell to the turf in disbelief. SMU took a knee on the extra point, with no time left on the clock.

SMU had a fourth-and-four at its own 39 with 2:16 left. Romo completed a pass to Blake Warren, but the play gained only 3 yards and gave UAB the ball at the SMU 42.

SMU called its final timeout with two minutes to play, so UAB only needed one first down to seal the win. But three runs by Burks netted only 5 yards and Mullins' punt into the end zone set up SMU's frantic game-winning drive.

UAB had taken a 27-22 lead when Dan Burks scored on a 13-yard run with 3:38 left in the game.

Romo completed 30 of 43 passes for 333 yards and two touchdowns. Chase had five catches for 82 yards to lead SMU receivers. Martin was SMU's leading rusher with 72 yards on 10 carries.

UAB turned the ball over three times against SMU, while getting only one turnover. Safety Joe Sturdivant had two interceptions and one fumble recovery for SMU.

Quarterback James Pinkney ran for a career-high three touchdowns, including the tiebreaker midway through the fourth quarter, as East Carolina defeated SMU, 24-17.

All three of Pinkney's scores were from one yard, including the final one to break a 17-17 tie with 7:11 left in the game. Pinkney, who was 15-of-21 passing for 225 yards, finished with 42 rushing yards on 13 attempts.

Pirates defensive back Demetrius Hodges sealed the victory with 11 seconds left with his second interception of the game at the ECU 21-yard line.

SMU quarterback Jerad Romo threw three fourth-quarter interceptions, including two in the last two minutes, and finished 19-of-37 for 211 yards and four interceptions. East Carolina forced five turnovers and scored 17 points off turnovers.

With 1:32 left, the Mustangs had the ball at the ECU 44, but safety Pierre Parker came up with his second interception of the fourth quarter when he picked off Romo at the ECU 25. SMU used its time-outs to get the ball back just a minute later before Hodges ended the Mustangs' hopes.

Parker set up Pinkney's game-winning touchdown by returning a Romo interception 11 yards to the SMU 13.

After falling behind 17-7, SMU tied the score on a 1-yard touchdown run by Romo with 45 seconds left in the third quarter. A 23-yard punt by Ryan Dougherty gave SMU the ball at the East Carolina 24, and running back DeMyron Martin had 19 yards on the scoring drive.

Martin led all rushers with 129 yards and a touchdown on 22 attempts.

Pinkney completed an 80-yard pass to receiver Phillip Henry to set up the first East Carolina touchdown. Pinkney scored on a quarterback sneak three plays later.

ECU's Marcus Hands recovered a Martin fumble at the SMU 34-yard line on the second play of SMU's next possession, leading to Pinkney's second touchdown. Defensive tackle Brandon Setzer forced the fumble, and Pinkney gave the Pirates a 14-7 edge with 5:52 left in the first half.

Paul Smith tossed a pair of touchdowns to Garrett Mills, including a 66-yard game-winning strike in the fourth quarter, as Tulsa defeated SMU 20-13.

Mills had eight receptions for 136 yards, pushing his season totals to 58 catches for 874 yards and seven touchdowns.

Tulsa broke a 13-13 tie with 8:24 to play. Smith scrambled out of the pocket, Mills' defender left him and the senior was 20 yards clear of the nearest pursuer when he hauled in Smith's pass. It was the longest touchdown reception of his career.

SMU had three more possessions, but failed to threaten. Nelson Coleman sacked quarterback Jerad Romo on SMU's final drive to force a third-and-16. Romo's desperation pass on the next play was intercepted by Bobby Klink.

Mills had given Tulsa a 10-7 lead in the second period on his 5-yard touchdown pass from Smith. He had four receptions for 51 yards in Tulsa's 61-yard scoring drive.

After Tulsa jumped out to a 3-0 lead, SMU came back on an 11-yard run by DeMyron Martin that capped a 71-yard drive and later added a pair of 23-yard field goals by Chris McMurtry.

Tulsa kicker Brad DeVault was successful on both of his attempts, from 36 and 24 yards. Smith completed 20 of 33 passes for 220 yards while Romo had nearly identical stats (20 of 32 for 223 yards).

SMU edged Tulsa in total yards with 337 to 323, but had three turnovers to none for the Hurricane.

SMU's best chance to take command came when it drove to a first-and-goal at the Tulsa 4 trailing 13-10 in the final quarter. On third down from the 2, William Washington threw Martin for a 4-yard loss and SMU settled for a field goal.

DeMyron Martin rushed for 171 yards and a touchdown in SMU's 27-7 victory against Rice. The loss extended the Owls' nation-leading losing streak to 14 games.

Rice's last victory came against SMU last year, and the Owls had beaten the Mustangs three straight times.

Martin had 128 of his yards in the second half, and his 1-yard scoring run put the Mustangs ahead 27-0 early in the fourth quarter.

Rice was plagued by mistakes. The Owls had a touchdown nullified by a penalty and failed to convert on fourth-and-1 from the SMU 1-yard line when starting quarterback Joel Armstrong fumbled.

Quarterback Jerad Romo's 2-yard touchdown run gave SMU a 20-0 lead with 5:54 left before halftime and capped a 15-play, 92-yard drive. Romo finished 9-of-17 passing for 111 yards and added 51 rushing yards.

Chris McMurtray set an SMU record with his 11th consecutive field goal on a career-long 48-yarder for a 13-0 lead in the first quarter.

The Mustangs' Rolando Humphrey recovered a muffed punt by the Owls' Brandon King at the Rice 6 to set up the first SMU score. Mustangs receiver Reynaldo Pellerin scored on a reverse on the next play.

Only a 5-yard touchdown pass from Chase Clement to Andy Hall with 7:09 left in the game prevented SMU from registering its first shutout since 1998.

SMU, which allowed 501 yards in last year's 44-10 loss to Rice, outgained the Owls 391-230.

DeMyron Martin scored two second-half touchdowns and Chris McMurtray kicked a 49-yard field goal with three seconds remaining to lift SMU to a 29-24 victory over Houston.

After McMurtray's field goal, Houston downed the kickoff and had the ball at its own 20 with two seconds remaining. But on the next play the ball was snapped over the head of Kevin Kolb, who chased it down and was tackled in the end zone for a safety.

Houston led 14-10 at halftime, but then Martin scored twice in the third quarter for SMU. He caught a 5-yard touchdown pass 4:39 into the quarter, then added a 1-yard TD plunge with 48 seconds left to put SMU up 24-14.

Kolb then scored on a 1-yard run for Houston early in the fourth, and Ben Bell kicked a 29-yard field goal to tie the score with 2:07 remaining.

Martin led SMU with 21 carries for 95 yards. Bobby Chase led the Mustangs in receptions with six for 63 yards.

Jerad Romo threw for 211 yards and three touchdowns as SMU beat UTEP, 40-27, costing the Miners a trip to the Conference USA championship game and giving the Mustangs their most wins in eight seasons.

The win gave SMU its best season since going 6-5 in 1997 and its first three-game winning streak since 1999.

DeMyron Martin rushed for 117 yards for SMU, which scored 24 unanswered points during one stretch and scored more than 30 points for the first time this season.

Jordan Palmer was 27-of-44 for 360 yards and threw three touchdowns for UTEP, but he also threw four interceptions and fumbled twice. Both fumbles happened inside the UTEP 20, leading to a 37-yard field goal from Chris McMurtray and a 5-yard touchdown run by Johnnie Fitzgerald.

Adrian Haywood forced Palmer's fumbles, and Cory Muse recovered both. Muse also had a third fumble recovery.

SMU scored on five straight possessions in the second half to take a 33-13 lead after trailing 7-6 at halftime.

In the third quarter, Romo threw a 34-yard touchdown to Reynaldo Pellerin and a 29-yard touchdown to Bobby Chase. Ryan Kennedy caught a 26-yard touchdown in the fourth.

LEVIAS BREAKS DOWN WALLS

Jerry LeVias has overcome many obstacles in his life to achieve his success. LeVias suffered a stroke at the age of 12 which left him unable to walk for five years, but rebounded to become a barrier-breaker in college football.

The turbulent 1960s saw a huge change in the SMU football program when LeVias accepted the Mustangs' offer to become the first African-American football player to earn an athletic scholarship in the Southwest Conference.

LeVias earned All-America and All-SWC honors while on the Hilltop...

And was later honored for his induction into the College Football Hall of Fame.

LeVias, who chose SMU largely because of its accounting program, eventually was named All-American, Academic All-American and Southwest Conference Player of the Year in 1968 when he set the SMU record for receiving yards in a season (1,131).

A coach of a high school all-star team of which LeVias was a member said of the wide receiver, "He'll make a good coach out of someone." That coach's name was Doak Walker, the same man who would see many of his own collegiate records broken by LeVias.

The Houston native was inducted into the Hall in December 2003.

RETIRED JERSEYS

The 2000 football season saw the SMU Athletic Department honor five former Mustang greats by retiring their jerseys at halftime of the Ponies' final five home games. Lamar Hunt, Forrest Gregg, Raymond Berry, Doak Walker and Eric Dickerson - all members of the Pro Football Hall of Fame - were honored.

Hunt (No. 80) played wide receiver at SMU from 1952-55 and is the owner of the Kansas City Chiefs. Gregg (No. 73) was a two-way standout on the Hilltop from 1952-55 and went onto a 14-year NFL career in which he won two Super Bowl rings. Berry (No. 87) was a Mustang wide receiver and defensive back in 1953 and 1954 who became one of the greatest pass catchers in NFL history. Walker (No. 37), the greatest player in SMU's storied history, became the first junior to ever win the Heisman Trophy in 1948. Dickerson (No. 19) finished third in the 1982 Heisman Trophy balloting after running for 1,617 yards and 17 TDs. He is the program's all-time leading rusher with 4,450 yards and broke the NFL's single-season rushing record with 2,105 yards in 1984 with the Los Angeles Rams.

SMU honored five of its all-time greats by retiring their jerseys in 2000

THE MUSTANG LEGEND

Legend has it that when Ford Motor Company was preparing to introduce the sports car that would gain fame as the Mustang, it was considering other names such as Cougar, Bronco, Cheetah and Colt.

But during the 1963 football season, SMU took an undersized but quick team to Ann Arbor to play a massive Michigan Wolverine squad. Michigan gained the early advantage, but had to fight off the feisty Ponies for a 27-16 win.

After the game, Ford's Lee Iacocca entered the SMU locker room and addressed the disappointed Mustangs.

"Today," Iacocca said, "After watching the SMU Mustangs play with such flair, we reached a decision. We will call our new car the Mustang. Because it will be light, like your team. It will be quick, like your team. And it will be sporty, like your team."

Ford's new car got its name, and the rest, as they say, is history.

Legend has it that Ford's signature car, the Mustang, got its nickname via the SMU football team following this 1963 game at Michigan

THE DOAK WALKER AWARD

The prestigious Doak Walker Award was created in 1989 to recognize the nation's premier running back for his accomplishments on the field, achievement in the classroom and citizenship in the community. It is the only major collegiate football award that requires candidates to be in good academic standing and on schedule to graduate within one year of other students of the same classification.

To be nominated, a candidate must:

- Play predominantly at the running back position and made extraordinary contributions to his team.
- Be enrolled in a degree program, in good academic standing and on schedule to graduate.
- Hold a record of good citizenship within and beyond the athletic sphere.
- Demonstrate a record of leadership.
- Exhibit the characteristics of sportsmanship and fair play associated with Doak Walker.

FROM THE BACKFIELD TO THE BOOTH

Swann led the Southwest Conference with 167 tackles during the 1995 season...

As an All-Southwest Conference linebacker, Craig Swann made his way into many an opponent's backfield for a stop. Now he makes his way into an opponent's broadcast booth.

Following an outstanding career and an SWC-best 167 tackles in 1995, Swann is now in his seventh season with the SMU program as the color analyst for the Mustang Radio Network.

Working along side his partner, play-by-play man Rich Phillips, Swann paints a vivid picture for Mustang fans and has been honored by a local radio station for his work.

Fans can catch all the SMU games this fall on 1310 AM The Ticket, the flagship of the Mustang Radio Network.

And now provides analysis for the Mustang Radio Network alongside play-by-play man Rich Phillips (left)

THE 1915 MUSTANGS

On the morning of September 14, 1915, coach Ray Morrison held his first practice, thus marking the birth of the Mustang football program.

A former All-Southern quarterback at Vanderbilt, Morrison immediately installed the passing game at SMU. Morrison came to be known as "the father of the forward pass" because of his use of the passing game on first and second downs instead of as a last resort.

A local sportswriter nicknamed the team "the Parsons" because the squad was composed primarily of theological students. SMU was a member of the Texas Intercollegiate Athletic Association, which ruled that neither graduate nor transfer students were eligible to play. Therefore, the first SMU team consisted entirely of freshmen.

The Mustangs played their first game on Oct. 10, 1915, dropping a 43-0 decision to TCU in Fort Worth. SMU bounced back in its next game, its first at home, to defeat Hendrix College, 13-2. During the 1915 season, the Mustangs posted a record of 2-5 and scored just three touchdowns while giving up 131 points.

SMU's 1984 squad won a SWC co-championship with a 10-2 mark and bested Notre Dame, 27-20, in the Aloha Bowl

SMU-TCU AND THE IRON SKILLET

During the post-World War II college football boom, the SMU and TCU student bodies created a travelling trophy called the Iron Skillet that was presented to the winner of the annual football game between the arch-rivals. The tradition eventually died, and the skillet was lost.

In 1993, however, the tradition was revived as the president of the SMU student body painted the face of the TCU student body president red and blue following the Mustangs' 21-15 victory in Fort Worth. The engraved skillet is presented to the winning team after each game.

After a 21-10 win in 2005, SMU will hold the Skillet for at least another year as SMU and TCU will not meet in 2006.

SMU-RICE AND THE MAYORS' CUP

A recent addition to the SMU-Rice rivalry is the Mayors' Cup, which goes to the winner of each year's football matchup.

The award came to being in 1998 when Dallas Mayor Ron Kirk and Houston Mayor Lee Brown were in office.

Rice won the inaugural Cup game in 1998, 23-17 in overtime, but SMU brought it home in 1999 with a 27-2 victory.

The Cup changed hands every season from 1998 to 2002.

SMU regained the Cup with a solid 27-7 win over Rice in 2005 and will look to retain it when the Mustangs travel to Houston on Nov. 25.

RIVALRIES BORN & REBORN

SMU moved to Conference USA in 2005. With the move, SMU reunited with former Southwest Conference foe Houston while adding geographical rival Tulane.

The Mustangs kept alive their rivalries with Rice, Tulsa and UTEP, former WAC members who also made the jump to C-USA.

The 2006 slate also includes a matchup with another old SWC rival - Texas Tech.

BOWL GAMES

1936 ROSE BOWL STANFORD 7, SMU 0

Pasadena, Calif.

January 1, 1936

SMU entered the 1936 Rose Bowl as the nation's top-ranked team, sporting a perfect 12-0 record and a defense which had shut out eight of its 12 opponents during the regular season. Led by first-year head coach Matty Bell, the Mustangs were matched against a strong Stanford team which took a 7-1 record into the game.

Due to a traffic jam, the SMU team bus did not arrive at the Rose Bowl until 20 minutes prior to kickoff. Stanford quarterback Bill Paulman scored on a one-yard sneak in the first quarter to give the Indians the early lead. It proved to be the only score of the game as SMU lost its best scoring opportunity with a fumble on the Stanford five-yard line. The loss was SMU's only blemish in its first national championship season.

1948 COTTON BOWL SMU 13, PENN STATE 13

Dallas, Texas

January 1, 1948

The 1948 Cotton Bowl featured a matchup between two unbeaten teams in SMU and Penn State. Led by All-American Doak Walker, the Mustangs jumped ahead early. Walker tossed a 53-yard scoring pass to Paul Page and later scored on a two-yard touchdown carry.

The Nittany Lions struck back when, just before halftime, Elwood Petchel connected on a 38-yard touchdown pass to Larry Cooney which cut the SMU lead to 13-7. Penn State scored the only points of the second half when Petchel threw his second scoring pass of the game on a six-yard toss to Wallace Triplett in the third quarter. The Nittany Lions, however, missed the extra point, and the game ended in a 13-13 tie.

1949 COTTON BOWL SMU 21, OREGON 13 Dallas, Texas January 1, 1949

Two of the nation's most powerful offensive teams met in the 1949 Cotton Bowl. Doak Walker and Kyle Rote led the Mustangs to their second consecutive Southwest Conference championship in 1948 while Oregon rode the right arm of quarterback Norm Van Brocklin to the Pacific Coast Conference co-championship.

The difference in the game was the use of the quick kick by SMU. Walker booted one 79 yards and Rote launched an 84-yard kick to pin the Ducks deep in their own territory. In addition to their quick kicks, the Mustangs' star running backs each scored touchdowns to give SMU a 14-0 lead. Answering the call for the Ducks, Van Brocklin threw a 24-yard touchdown pass to Dick Wilkins early in the fourth quarter. SMU put the game away just three minutes later when Chicken Roberts scored on an eight-yard run to push the lead to 21-6.

1963 SUN BOWL OREGON 21, SMU 14 El Paso, Texas December 31, 1963

In a rematch of the 1949 Cotton Bowl, SMU entered the game with a 4-6 record and had received a Sun Bowl berth largely on the basis of its 32-28 victory over fourth-ranked Navy in the third game of the season. SMU had a talented QB duo in Danny Thomas and Mac White, and both were counted upon to rally the Ponies in the fourth quarter after falling behind 21-0.

Thomas led the Mustangs on a drive which culminated in a two-yard touchdown pass to John Roderick. Later in the quarter, Roderick was on the receiving end of a seven-yard scoring pass from White to pull the Mustangs within nine points. After White ran for the two-point conversion, SMU trailed by a touchdown, 21-14, but could not pull any closer.

1966 COTTON BOWL

GEORGIA 24, SMU 9

Dallas, Texas
December 31, 1966

After winning its first Southwest Conference crown in 18 seasons, SMU earned a trip to the Cotton Bowl to face Georgia. Kent Lawrence set the tone early for the Bulldogs when he raced 74 yards for a touchdown on the game's second play. The sophomore running back finished the day with 149 yards rushing on 16 carries, as the Mustangs were unable to contain the Georgia ground attack. SMU cut the lead to 7-3 midway through the first quarter on Dennis Partee's 22-yard field goal.

Georgia responded by scoring 10 unanswered points before Mike Richardson scored the lone SMU touchdown on a one-yard dive with 1:14 left in the first half. Leading 17-9 at halftime, Georgia shut down the SMU offense and its outstanding sophomore receiver Jerry LeVias in the second half. The only score in the final two quarters came when Bulldog fullback Ronnie Jenkins, who rushed for 88 yards on 23 carries in the game, scored on a four-yard touchdown run with 14:33 left in the game.

1968 ASTRO-BLUEBONNET BOWL

SMU 28, OKLAHOMA 27

Houston, Texas
December 31, 1968

The 53,543 fans who gathered in the Astrodome on New Year's Eve night for the 1968 Astro-Bluebonnet Bowl comprised what at the time was the largest crowd ever to see a football game played indoors. They also witnessed one of the most exciting college bowl games ever as SMU and Oklahoma combined to score 35 points in the fourth quarter before the game was decided.

OU scored on its first possession of the game when Bob Warmack carried on a sweep to the right for an eight-yard touchdown. Warmack's touchdown stood as the game's only score until the third quarter when Mike Richardson scored for SMU on a one-yard dive. The Sooners retaliated by driving 80 yards and scoring on a 21-yard pass from Steve Owens to Johnny Barr.

The fireworks began in the fourth quarter when SMU's Chuck Hixson connected with Jerry LeVias for an 11-yard scoring pass to tie the game at 14-14. Richardson scored his second touchdown with 7:35 left in the contest to give the Mustangs a 21-14 lead. After OU answered with a touchdown to tie the game, SMU linebacker Bruce Portillo intercepted a Sooner pass on the OU 22. Hixson put SMU on top 28-21 after a 19-yard pass to Ken Fleming with just three minutes remaining. After driving the length of the field, Oklahoma cut the Mustang lead to 28-27 when Barr caught a 30-yard touchdown pass from Mickey Ripley with 1:16 left. SMU held onto the lead when Ripley was stopped short of the goal line on the Sooners' two-point conversion attempt.

1980 HOLIDAY BOWL BYU 46, SMU 45 San Diego, Calif. December 19, 1980

The 1980 Holiday Bowl featured two teams with distinctly different offensive philosophies. SMU relied upon the running of Eric Dickerson and Craig James, while BYU boasted an explosive aerial attack led by Jim McMahon.

The Mustangs jumped out of the gate early, racing to a 19-0 lead in the first quarter after touchdown runs by Dickerson and James, a safety and a 42-yard field goal by Eddie Garcia. SMU had increased its lead to 29-7 in the second quarter before BYU's Vai Sikahema returned a punt 83 yards, pulling the Cougars within 16 at halftime. Entering the fourth quarter, SMU led 38-19, and with four minutes remaining the Mustangs held a 45-25 advantage.

With his team trailing by 20, McMahon led BYU to two quick touchdowns to cut the SMU lead to 45-39. With 18 seconds remaining, BYU's Bill Schoepflin blocked Eric Kaifes' punt to give BYU possession at the Mustang 41-yard line. After two desperation passes by McMahon fell incomplete, the Cougars had one final opportunity with just three seconds left. As time expired, McMahon found tight end Clay Brown in the end zone for a 41-yard touchdown pass, guiding BYU to one of the greatest comebacks in bowl history.

1983 COTTON BOWL SMU 7, PITTSBURGH 3 Dallas, Texas January 1, 1983

With the temperature in the upper 30's and a light rain falling at gametime, playing conditions were anything but ideal when undefeated SMU met Pittsburgh in the 1983 Cotton Bowl. Accustomed to playing in inclement weather, Pittsburgh appeared to have the advantage in the early going, driving to the SMU one-yard line on the game's opening series. Panther halfback Joe McCall fumbled away Pitt's best touchdown opportunity when Mustang safety Wes Hopkins fell on the loose ball at the two. SMU was not able to capitalize and after two quarters neither team had scored, marking the first scoreless first half in the Cotton Bowl in 22 years.

On their first possession of the second quarter, the Panthers scored the game's first points when Eric Schubert booted a 43-yard field goal. SMU responded with an 80-yard drive which resulted in Lance McIlhenny's nine-yard touchdown scamper around right end on the third play of the fourth quarter. Following the ensuing kickoff, senior quarterback Dan Marino engineered a drive which put the Panthers in scoring position at the SMU seven. On third-and-goal, Marino threw a pass which was tipped by Hopkins and intercepted in the end zone by Blane Smith, thus ending Pittsburgh's chance of handing SMU its only loss of the season.

1983 SUN BOWL

ALABAMA 28, SMU 7

El Paso, Texas
December 24, 1983

SMU squared off against Alabama in the 50th Sun Bowl on a cold and windy afternoon in El Paso. The temperature at kickoff was 28 degrees, with winds gusting up to 35 miles per hour. Alabama jumped on the Mustangs in the first quarter, scoring on touchdown runs of one and 11 yards by Ricky Moore. The Crimson Tide defense forced three SMU turnovers in the first half, and Alabama was able to stretch its lead to 28-0 by halftime.

Jeff Atkins helped the Mustangs get on the scoreboard early in the third quarter when he broke loose for a 58-yard run, setting up Lance McIlhenny's 15-yard touchdown pass to Marquis Pleasant. Pleasant's touchdown represented the only points of the second half as Alabama held on for a 28-7 victory. After giving up 303 total yards in the first half, the SMU defense limited the Crimson Tide to just 96 yards of offense in the second half.

1984 ALOHA BOWL

SMU 27, NOTRE DAME 20

Honolulu, Hawaii
December 28, 1984

Between the years of 1949 and 1958, SMU and Notre Dame battled each other on the gridiron eight times. When the two schools met in the 1984 Aloha Bowl, it represented their first meeting in 26 years. SMU, playing in its fourth bowl game in five seasons, scored on its first two offensive possessions. A seven-yard touchdown carry by Jeff Atkins and Don King's 12-yard pass to Cobby Morrison gave the Mustangs a 14-0 lead. Notre Dame responded with 10 unanswered points before Brandy Brownlee connected on a 47-yard field goal to give SMU a 17-10 lead at halftime.

The Fighting Irish tied the game on Mark Brooks' 11-yard touchdown run in the third quarter, but SMU regained the lead on its next possession with Brownlee's second field goal of the game. The Mustangs were able to work on the clock for most of the second half due to the strong running of Atkins and Reggie Dupard, both of whom ran for over 100 yards in the contest. Dupard's two-yard scoring run gave SMU a 10-point lead with six minutes left in the game and the Mustangs held off a late Notre Dame rally to win, 27-20.

BIRTH OF A NICKNAME

The first football teams at SMU were unofficially known as the "Parsons" because of the large number of theology students on the team. But after SMU won a state championship in women's basketball, it was determined that the university's teams needed an official mascot. Bulls, Rams, Comanches and Rattlers were among the names submitted by members of the student body. The list was narrowed to three finalists, and at a pep assembly on October 17, 1917, the name "Mustangs" was selected over Bisons and Greyhounds.

On November 4, 1932, a live horse made its first appearance at a Mustang football game. Peruna I was a four-year old, 150-pound pony which was donated by T.E. Jones, the owner of Arlington Downs racetrack. The name Peruna originated in the fall of 1915 when SMU student George Sexton substituted the words, "She'll be loaded with Peruna when she comes ..." to the tune of "Comin' Around the Mountain." In the early part of the century, Peruna was the name of the most famous elixir in Texas and had a reputation as a cure-all. Although the words to the song were changed some years later, Peruna remained as the name of SMU's mascot.

SMU MUSTANG BAND

One of the most unique university bands in the nation is the colorful SMU Mustang Band. This group's tradition of loyalty, dedication and commitment has earned it the title of "The Hub of SMU Spirit."

The Mustang Band was first organized in 1917 by Harold Hart Todd. One of the band's oldest traditions began in 1928 when, under the direction of Cy Barcus, the band was the first college band to perform swing music at sporting events. In 1933, the Mustang Band earned its first national exposure as it followed the football team to San Francisco for the SMU-St. Mary's game and, while there, played on a coast-to-coast NBC radio show.

During the 1930s, the band performed jazz stage shows in several big city theaters scheduled around weekend football games. The band was also featured on several network radio broadcasts during the 1940s, including weekly concerts on WFAA radio.

Dr. Irving Dreibrodtt became director in 1958 and brought many innovations to the band. In the early 1960s, the band's wardrobe expanded to 20 different uniforms, earning it the nickname of "The Best Dressed Band in the Land." Following the 1968 Bluebonnet Bowl victory over Oklahoma, CBS television selected the Mustang Band as the best television halftime band in the nation. Twenty years later, the band was named "The Best College Band in Texas" by Kirk Dooley's Book of Texas Bests.

The Mustang Band has traveled to every bowl game in which SMU has played, beginning with the Rose Bowl in 1936. In 1933, the band began producing Pigskin Review, a musical-comedy variety show during the week of Homecoming, a tradition which still continues. In 1997, the band made a recording with The Light Crust Doughboys entitled "The High Road on the Hilltop". That project made it into the second round of Grammy voting in several categories. Besides performing for Presidential visits, Gubernatorial inaugurations and countless campus events, the band has appeared with personalities such as Harry James, Cheryl Tiegs, Jerry Jeff Walker and Bob Hope.

In January 2001, the Mustang Band was invited to represent SMU, performing at the Presidential Inauguration Parade in Washington, D.C. for President George W. Bush and SMU alumna and First Lady, Laura Bush.

BIG GAME BREAKDOWN

MUSTANGS TOP HORNED FROGS EN ROUTE TO 1935 NATIONAL TITLE

Ft. Worth - The SMU Mustangs improved to 11-0 with a 20-14 win over second-ranked TCU before more than 40,000 fans on Saturday, Nov. 30, 1935. The win snapped TCU's 10-game win streak and ended the Frogs' bid for the Rose Bowl. SMU moved one step closer to the Pasadena-based contest, a Southwest Conference title and a National Championship.

SMU opened the scoring midway through the first quarter when Bob Finley plunged in from one yard out. Mustang kicker Maurice Orr added the extra point and SMU held the early 7-0 lead. SMU stretched the lead to 14-0 early in the second quarter when Bobby Wilson scampered in from 14 yards out for the score. Orr's PAT gave the Ponies the two-TD edge just over one quarter into the game.

After two TCU scores knotted the game at 14-14 with eight minutes to play, the stage was set for SMU's dramatic win. Wilson returned the kickoff to the SMU 40-yard line and after two carries the Mustangs had the ball at midfield. Following a three-yard carry by Shelly Burt, Finley heaved a 47-yard scoring pass to a leaping Wilson amid a group of Horned Frog defenders. Orr missed the point-after, but the game ended when TCU's drive stalled at the SMU 35 and the Ponies had held on for the win.

ABOUT THE DICKINSON & HOULGATE SYSTEMS

The Dickinson System (1926-40) is a mathematical point system devised by Frank Dickinson, a professor of economics at Illinois. The annual Dickinson ratings were emblematic of the national championship and the basis for awarding the Rissman National Trophy and the Knute K. Rockne Intercollegiate Memorial Trophy.

The Houlgate System (1927-58) is a mathematical rating system developed by Deke Houlgate of Los Angeles, Calif. His ratings were syndicated in newspapers and published in Illustrated Football and the Football Thesaurus.

MUSTANGS RALLY WITH 20-POINT FOURTH QUARTER TO CLINCH SWC CROWN AT ARKANSAS

Fayetteville - SMU finished the regular season 10-1 and clinched the 1981 Southwest Conference championship with a thrilling come-from-behind victory over Arkansas in the final game of the season on Nov. 21.

With the Pony Express held in check for most of the game, the Mustangs managed only one touchdown - a Russ Washington 10-yd. interception return - to go along with two Eddie Garcia field goals through three quarters of play.

Trailing 18-12 entering the fourth quarter, SMU tied the game at 18 with 7:41 remaining on another Garcia field goal. On the ensuing Razorback possession, SMU's Eric Ferguson jumped in front of a Brad Taylor pass and returned it inside the Arkansas 20. The Ponies only needed two Craig James runs to score the go-ahead touchdown with 6:30 remaining.

Following the kickoff, the Mustang defense held again and forced an Arkansas punt with 3:49 remaining and SMU wanting a score to seal the victory. Eric Dickerson delivered with 27 seconds left, when he scampered 31 yards for the touchdown to give SMU the 32-18 win.

Dickerson and James each ran for over 100 yards in the contest and Dickerson set an SMU record with his 19th touchdown on the season.

TO 7-3 COTTON BOWL WIN OVER MARINO'S PANTHERS

Dallas - With the temperature in the upper 30's and a light rain falling at gametime, playing conditions were anything but ideal when undefeated SMU met Pittsburgh in the 1983 Cotton Bowl. Accustomed to playing in inclement weather, Pittsburgh appeared to have the advantage in the early going, driving to the SMU one-yard line on the game's opening series. Panther halfback Joe McCall fumbled away Pitt's best touchdown opportunity when Mustang safety Wes Hopkins fell on the loose ball at the two. SMU was not able to capitalize and after two quarters neither team had scored, marking the first scoreless first half in the Cotton Bowl in 22 years.

On their first possession of the second quarter, the Panthers scored the game's first points when Eric Schubert booted a 43-yard field goal. SMU responded with an 80-yard drive which resulted in Lance McIlhenny's nine-yard touchdown scamper around right end on the third play of the fourth quarter.

Following the ensuing kickoff, senior quarterback Dan Marino engineered a drive which put the Panthers in scoring position at the SMU seven. On third-and-goal, Marino threw a pass which was tipped by Hopkins and intercepted in the end zone by Blane Smith, thus ending Pittsburgh's chance of handing SMU its only loss of the season and giving SMU its third national title.

ABOUT THE HELMS ATHLETIC FOUNDATION

The Helms Athletic Foundation (1941-82) was established by the founding sponsor, Paul H. Helms, Los Angeles sportsman and philanthropist. After Helms' death in 1957, United Savings & Loan became its benefactor during 1970-72. A merger of United Savings and Citizen Savings was completed in 1973, and the Athletic Foundation became known as Citizens Savings Athletic Foundation. In 1982, First Interstate Bank assumed sponsorship for its final rankings. Thereafter, Schroeder, who died in 1988, then chose, with the assistance of a Hall Board, the annual national champion after the bowl games.

THE HISTORY OF SMU FOOTBALL

1910s

On the morning of September 14, 1915, coach Ray Morrison held his first practice, thus marking the birth of the Mustang football program. Morrison came to SMU in June of 1915 when he became the coach of the University's football, basketball, baseball and track teams, as well as an instructor of mathematics. A former All-Southern quarterback at Vanderbilt, Morrison immediately installed the passing game at SMU. A local sportswriter nicknamed the team "the Parsons" because the squad was composed primarily of theology students. SMU was a member of the Texas Intercollegiate Athletic Association, which ruled that neither graduate nor transfer students were eligible to play. Therefore, the first SMU team consisted entirely of freshmen. The Mustangs played their first game on Oct. 10, 1915, dropping a 43-0 decision to TCU in Fort Worth. SMU bounced back in its next game, its first at home, to defeat Hendrix College, 13-2. Morrison came to be known as "the father of the forward pass" because of his use of the passing game on first and second downs instead of as a last resort.

- During the 1915 season, the Mustangs posted a record of 2-5 and scored just three touchdowns while giving up 131 points. SMU recorded the first shutout in school history with a 7-0 victory over Dallas University that year.

- SMU finished the 1916 season 0-8-2 and suffered its worst loss ever, a 146-3 drubbing by Rice. The Mustangs were outscored, 455-27, by their opponents while managing ties against Austin College (0-0) and Southwestern (9-9). Ray Morrison left SMU following the 1916 season to work with the Army YMCA at Fort Oglethorpe, Ga., as Director of Sports and Recreation. He returned to SMU in 1920 to organize a Department of Physical Education.

- J. Burton Rix became the second head football coach in 1917 and guided SMU to its first winning season (3-2-3).

- In 1918, SMU became a member of the Southwest Conference, joining Baylor, Rice, Texas, Texas A&M, Arkansas and Oklahoma A&M (which later became Oklahoma State).

1920s

The 1920s brought the first two Southwest Conference football championships and a new stadium to the Hilltop. After Rix led the Ponies to a combined 4-11-3 record in the decade's first two years, Ray Morrison returned as coach in 1922 and guided SMU to the first of 10 consecutive winning seasons. Sportswriters billed the Mustangs the "Aerial Circus," in reference to Morrison's passing offense. At a time when most teams threw the ball five or six times per game, SMU passed between 30 and 40 times per contest. The Mustangs recorded a perfect 9-0 mark and the school's first conference title one year later in 1923.

In 1926, Ownby Stadium was built, named after SMU alumnus and strong supporter of athletics Jordan C. Ownby. SMU defeated North Texas State Teachers College, 42-0, on September 24, 1926, in the first game at Ownby. Quarterback Gerald Mann, known as "The Little Red Arrow" because of his strong, accurate passing, was a member of the first Mustang team to play in Ownby Stadium and, as part of his scholarship chores, helped plant the grass on the stadium playing field. SMU steamrolled over its first three opponents that year, shutting out North Texas State, Trinity and Centenary by a combined score of 127-0. Missouri was the only roadblock for the Mustangs in their 8-0-1 season, managing a 7-7 tie.

- In 1922, end Gene Bedford and back Logan Stollenwerck were named first-team All-Southwest Conference, becoming the first Mustang players to achieve that honor. Bedford became the first player from SMU to play professionally when he played for the Rochester Jeffersons in 1925.

- The Mustangs made their first bowl appearance in 1924, playing against West Virginia Wesleyan in the Dixie Classic on New Year's Day. The game, played at Fair Park Stadium in Dallas, was the predecessor to the Cotton Bowl. WVW spoiled SMU's 18-game unbeaten streak with a 9-7 victory.

- In the spring of 1926, Morrison decided that it would be important to find a lefthanded quarterback for the upcoming Southwest Conference season. Gerald Mann, who was the Mustangs' righthanded quarterback, told Morrison that he would have his lefthanded quarterback before the season began. Not eager to lose his duty as signal-caller, Mann reported to fall practice ready to throw lefthanded.

- Guard Choc Sanders became SMU's first All-American in 1928. Sanders was also the Southwest Conference's first All-America selection. Tackle Marion Hammon became the Mustangs' second All-American one year later.

1930s

The Mustang football program continued its rapid ascent to national prominence during the 1930s. SMU won its first national championship in 1935 after posting a 12-win season under the guidance of first-year head coach Matty Bell. Known as a player's coach, Bell brought discipline to his team, and he spent time listening and talking to his players. Fullback Harry Shuford and tackle Truman "Big Dog" Spain were two prominent players on the national championship team. A tri-captain, Shuford was the Mustangs' best running back during the 1935 season, but injury forced him to miss the season's most critical contest.

The Mustangs, ranked number one in the country, played second-ranked TCU and its star quarterback Sammy Baugh for the unofficial national championship and the right to play in the Rose Bowl against Stanford on Jan. 1, 1936. Bobby Wilson scored two touchdowns to give SMU a 14-0 lead before Baugh rallied the Horned Frogs to a 14-14 tie. Early in the fourth quarter, Bob Finley connected on a long pass to Wilson after the Mustangs faced a fourth down at the TCU 39. Wilson caught the ball at the five and rolled into the endzone as the Mustangs held on to win, 20-14, and earned a trip to the Rose Bowl. Despite entering the game as heavy favorites, the Ponies were upset by Stanford, 7-0, with Cardinal quarterback Bill Paulman scoring the game's only touchdown on a first quarter run. While the loss constituted the only blemish on a 12-1 season, SMU was able to pay off its 10-year debt on Ownby Stadium with the check the university received from competing in the Rose Bowl.

- Prior to becoming the head coach at SMU in 1935, Matty Bell served as the head coach at TCU (1923-1928) and Texas A&M (1929-1933). Bell arrived at SMU in 1934 and served one season as the line coach.

- Three SMU players earned All-America status in 1935: tackle Truman Spain, guard J.C. Wetsel and back Bobby Wilson. Wilson, who scored all three Mustang touchdowns in the dramatic 20-14 win over TCU, went on to play one year of pro football for the Brooklyn Dodgers in 1936.

- SMU won its third Southwest Conference championship in 1931 after finishing the season with a 9-1-1 mark. The Mustangs struggled the next two seasons, posting a 3-7-2 record in 1932 and a 4-7-1 record in 1933.

- Harry Shuford, a tri-captain and fullback on the 1935 team, was drafted by the Philadelphia Eagles in 1936 and, despite the team's efforts to sign him to a contract, opted to attend law school at SMU. Shuford overcame the prevailing thought that a football player could not succeed in law school and finished first in his class in 1939.

1940s

While the 1930s established SMU's position on the national football map, the 1940s ensured its permanent inclusion. A conference co-championship in 1940 served as a solid beginning to the new decade, but was followed by six consecutive losing seasons from 1941 through 1946. World War II resulted in the loss of Bell for three years (1942-45) when he left the Hilltop to join the Navy reserves. Bell returned to SMU in 1945 and took on an additional role as the university's athletic director. The 1947 season brought new hope and the emergence of a legend in Doak Walker. The only three-time All-America in SMU history, Walker led the Mustangs to consecutive Southwest Conference championships in 1947 and 1948. Over the course of his career at SMU, Walker rushed for 1,954 yards, passed for 1,638 yards, scored 288 points, punted for a 39.4 average and kicked field goals and extra points. He is also the Mustangs' all-time leader in punt return yards with 750. Walker's exploits earned him the Heisman Trophy in 1948 and led to his number 37 being the only jersey ever to be retired at SMU. Led by Walker, Kyle Rote, Dick McKissack and Paul Page, the Mustang backfield combined hard running with tricky reverse and gadget plays to wreak havoc on opposing defenses in the latter part of the decade.

- Walker was a high school teammate of Bobby Layne at Highland Park High School in Dallas. The two were matched against each other in Walker's first collegiate game in 1945 when Layne was the quarterback at Texas. Although UT won the game, 12-7, Walker scored the Mustangs' only touchdown and kicked the extra point. Walker and Layne were reunited as teammates when both played for the Detroit Lions in the early 1950s.

- After playing their home games since 1926 at Ownby Stadium, the Mustangs moved to the Cotton Bowl in 1948 and remained there for 31 years. For almost a half-century, the last game played at Ownby was Oct. 2, 1948, when SMU defeated Texas Tech, 41-6. Because of his immense popularity, the Cotton Bowl became known as "The House That Doak Built."

- Following the 1947 and 1948 seasons, SMU played in back-to-back Cotton Bowls. The Mustangs were matched against Penn State in the 1948 game, tying the Nittany Lions, 13-13. Walker threw a 53-yard touchdown pass and scored on a two-yard run, but Penn State's Elwood Petchel matched Walker by tossing scoring passes of 38 and six yards. The 1949 Cotton Bowl paired SMU with Oregon and its star quarterback, Norm Van Brocklin. The Mustangs won 21-13.

Record for the Decade: 58-46-10

Kyle Rote (44) was named an All-American following the 1950 season

1950s

After playing alongside Doak Walker the previous two seasons, Kyle Rote was given his chance to be the featured back in 1950. Rote, who led the Southwest Conference with 777 yards rushing in 1949, was named an All-American following the 1950 season.

As the Walker-Rote era came to an end, so began a new era of Mustang gridiron greats including Fred Benners, Forrest Gregg, Raymond Berry and Don Meredith. One of the most prolific passers in Mustang history, Benners completed 109 passes in 108 minutes played in 1950. A two-time All-Southwest Conference selection, Forrest Gregg was a two-way player at both offensive and defensive tackle from 1952-55. At first, he was not offered a full scholarship by SMU upon graduation from Sulphur Springs High School, and was leaning toward attending Texas A&M. However, chief recruiter Herman "Sleepy" Morgan, recognizing Gregg's infinite potential, ultimately lured him to the Hilltop with an offer of a full scholarship. Despite the fact that Berry caught just 11 passes for 144 yards during his junior season and had never started a game in his career, his teammates elected him as a co-captain in 1954. With that vote of confidence, Berry went on to earn All-Southwest Conference and Academic All-America accolades. He was a 20th-round draft choice of the Baltimore Colts in 1955 and was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1973. Don Meredith was a two-time All American in 1958 and 1959 and his .610 career completion percentage is the greatest of any passer in Mustang history. One of his greatest attributes was his running ability, which increased the pressure on opposing defenses.

- After Bell decided to relinquish his duties as head football coach to devote himself full-time to his responsibilities as athletic director, three different head coaches guided the Mustangs in the 1950s: H.N. "Rusty" Russell (1950-52), Chalmer Woodard (1953-56) and Bill Meek (1957-61). Bell's 127 career wins and .653 winning percentage both rank second all-time among SMU's coaching records.

- While Meek's teams won just 17 of 50 games during his tenure, he was responsible for installing an early version of the run-and-shoot offense during Don Meredith's sophomore season. Meek employed a spread formation, using a receiver wide to each side and one in the slot on each side.

- In his first varsity season in 1957, Meredith set an SWC single-season record by connecting on 71 of 102 passes for a .696 completion percentage. During his Mustang career, Meredith also returned kickoffs, punted and place-kicked.

- Quarterback Fred Benners led the Mustangs to perhaps their greatest win of the decade when he completed 22 of 42 passes for 336 yards to beat Notre Dame, 27-20, in South Bend on October 13, 1951.

Record for the Decade: 47-48-5

1960s

The first two years of the decade found the Mustangs shackled with mounting losses and sagging attendance. In 1960, SMU finished 0-9-1 and average home attendance fell below 30,000 for the first time since 1946.

Following a 2-7-1 season in 1961, SMU introduced Hayden Fry as the Mustangs' eighth head coach. Fry lifted SMU back to national prominence in 1966, when SMU was ranked ninth in the nation and won its first conference championship in 18 years. Jerry LeVias became the first African-American player in the Southwest Conference to receive an athletic scholarship in 1965 after choosing SMU largely because of its accounting program. As a senior in 1968, LeVias caught 80 passes for a school-record 1131 yards when he was selected both an All-American and Academic All-American. Combined with quarterback Chuck Hixson, LeVias helped lead the Mustangs to a 28-27 win over Oklahoma in the 1968 Astro-Bluebonnet Bowl, giving SMU its first bowl victory since the 1949 Cotton Bowl. Hixson was just a sophomore in 1968, but he finished the season as the nation's leading passer by completing 265 of 468 attempts for 3,103 yards.

The 1963 season provided the SMU football program with perhaps its most memorable game when the Mustangs hosted fourth-ranked Navy and its heralded quarterback, Roger Staubach, on October 11, 1963, at the Cotton Bowl. On its way to a 4-7 season, SMU was given little chance to beat the Midshipmen. Little-known sophomore John Roderick rushed for 146 yards on 11 carries and scored on touchdown runs of 45 and two yards for the Mustangs. The SMU defense, led by Bob Oyler, Martin Cude, Bill Harlan, Harold Magers and Doug January, sent Staubach to the bench twice with a dislocated left shoulder. Trailing 28-26 with 2:52 remaining in the game, SMU had one last chance to pull off the upset. Quarterback Danny Thomas threw to Billy Gannon, who ran to the Navy 46. On the next play, Roderick took a pitchout 23 yards to the 23. After a pass interference penalty against Navy put the ball on the one-yard line, Gannon plowed over right tackle for the winning touchdown with 2:05 left. The SMU defense held off Staubach's valiant effort to rally his team for one last score, as the Mustangs pulled off the 32-28 upset.

- Jerry LeVias and John LaGrone were the only three-time All-SWC selections of the decade. LaGrone was also the first Mustang player to be selected as both an All-American and Academic All-American when he was honored following the 1966 season.

- Led by LeVias and Chuck Hixson, the 1968 Mustangs eclipsed the 300-point barrier for the first time in school history, scoring 311 points. In addition to his 1,131 receiving yards, LeVias set school records for receptions in a game (15 vs. Ohio State) and receiving yards in a game (213 vs. N.C. State).

Record for the Decade: 35-65-3

John Roderick (23) scored twice in SMU's upset of fourth-ranked Navy in 1963

1970s

Over the course of the 1970s, the SMU football program was shaped by outstanding individual performances and the birth of "Mustang Mania" on the Hilltop.

Chuck Hixson ended his SMU career in 1970 as the Mustangs' career leader in total offense with 7,179 yards. Alvin Maxson helped fill the void left by Hixson's absence by becoming the first Mustang to rush for 1,000 yards in consecutive seasons when he rushed for 1,012 in 1971 and 1,005 in 1972. In the process, he helped the Mustangs to back-to-back winning seasons for the first time since 1958-59.

Defensively, Robert Popelka, Louie Kelcher and Putt Choate starred for the Mustangs in the 1970s. All three were two-time All-Southwest Conference performers during their careers at SMU.

Ron Meyer was hired as SMU's 10th head coach in January of 1976 and was given the responsibility of establishing a championship reign on the Hilltop. His ability to recruit players such as Mike Ford and Emanuel Tolbert helped build the foundation of "Mustang Mania." A highly-touted quarterback recruit from Mesquite High School, Ford was the nation's second-ranked passer in 1978, when he threw for 3,007 yards. His main target was Tolbert, an All-American with blazing speed.

Home attendance jumped from 26,000 to 52,000 in 1978 and "Mustang Mania" ushered a new era in SMU football the following season, when the Mustangs began playing all of their home games at Texas Stadium.

Accompanying the move to a new stadium in 1979 was a freshman class which would lift SMU football to new heights. Freshmen Eric Dickerson and Craig James combined to rush for 1,239 yards in 1979, and the "Pony Express" was born.

- Tailback Arthur Whittington finished second in the nation in all-purpose running to Pittsburgh's Tony Dorsett in 1976 with 167.5 yards a game. Whittington finished his SMU career in 1977 as the Mustangs' all-time leader in kickoff return yards with 1,649.

- A four-year starter from 1973-76, Ricky Wesson became the first Mustang quarterback to accumulate more yards rushing than passing in a single season in 1974. Wesson rushed for 885 yards while passing for 688. He became the fourth player in SMU history to lead the Mustangs in rushing and passing in the same season.

- Putt Choate became the first Mustang defender to record more than 200 tackles in a season when he made 253 in 1978. Choate finished his career with 649 stops.

- Despite coming from different backgrounds, Eric Dickerson and Craig James shared similar success before arriving at SMU. Both led their high schools to undefeated 15-0 seasons and state championships as seniors. In three years at Sealy High School, Dickerson rushed for 5,875 yards and 84 touchdowns. James collected 2,411 yards and 35 TDs during his senior season at Stratford High School in Houston.

1980s

There was a great deal of optimism surrounding the SMU football program in 1980. Eric Dickerson and Craig James gave the Mustangs one of the nation's top backfield duos and Mike Ford returned to the team after a knee injury limited him to just two starts in 1979. Leading the defense were future All-Americans John Simmons and Harvey Armstrong. The Mustangs parlayed their talent into an 8-4 record and the school's first national ranking (20th) since 1968. A 10-1 record the following season vaulted the Ponies to their second National Championship and their first conference title in 16 years, as a new quarterback took over the reigns of the Pony Express. Lance McIlhenny was the perfect leader for SMU's option attack, using his running ability and leadership capabilities to guide the Mustangs to a 34-5-1 record after taking over as the starting quarterback in the seventh game of his freshman season in 1980. After Ron Meyer was named head coach of the New England Patriots prior to the 1982 season, Southern Mississippi coach Bobby Collins was named the Mustangs' new head coach. Dickerson, James and McIlhenny led SMU to an 11-0-1 record and its second-consecutive National Championship in 1982, highlighted by a victory over Pittsburgh and its star quarterback, Dan Marino, in the Cotton Bowl. With the loss of Dickerson and James to the National Football League in 1983, the Mustangs found a capable replacement in Reggie Dupard, a tailback from New Orleans whose blazing speed made him the first SMU running back to gain over 1,000 yards in three consecutive seasons. Dupard was the nation's eighth-leading rusher in 1985 with 1,278 yards, and he became a first-round draft choice by the New England Patriots the following spring. After NCAA sanctions forced the cancellation of the 1987 season and University officials cancelled the 1988 campaign, SMU welcomed one of its former gridiron greats back to lead the resurrection of the Mustang football program. Forrest Gregg returned to accept what he called "the ultimate challenge" when he was named as the Ponies' head coach on January 14, 1988, after having coached the Green Bay Packers since 1984. He was given the responsibility of guiding a team which consisted of 74 freshmen, 16 of whom were starters. One of those freshmen was quarterback Mike Romo who, on February 10, 1988, became the Mustangs' first signee since 1985. Romo engineered one of the most exciting wins in Mustang history when he led SMU from a 17-point deficit in the final five minutes to defeat Connecticut, 31-30, in just the second game of the 1989 season. He completed a four-yard pass to Michael Bowen on the game's final play to give the Ponies their first win since 1986.

- One of the most memorable plays in SMU football history took place on November 13, 1982, when Bobby Leach took a cross-field lateral on a kickoff with 17 seconds left and raced untouched for a 91-yard touchdown to give the Mustangs a 34-27 win over Texas Tech. The play helped preserve the Ponies' undefeated season and forever branded Leach with the nickname of "Miracle Man."

- As a freshman in 1989, Mike Romo established four major university records which had stood for over 20 years. Romo set SMU records for yards passing in a game (450), passes completed in a game (40), passes completed in a season (282) and passes attempted in a season (503).

- Jason Wolf set an NCAA freshman record when he caught 61 passes in 1989. He also led the Ponies in scoring (50 points), and his 61 receptions are the fourth-highest total in SMU history.

- After playing their home games in Ownby Stadium from 1926-1948, the Mustangs returned their home games to the on-campus facility in 1989. SMU hosted Rice in the season opener on September 2, marking the return of Mustang football to Ownby exactly 40 years and 11 months after SMU's last game there.

1990s

On April 11, 1990, Forrest Gregg assumed the role of athletic director, while announcing that he would relinquish his coaching duties following the 1990 season. Tom Rossley, who served as offensive coordinator at SMU from 1988-89, became the 13th head coach in Mustang history in December, 1991. The orchestrator of the Mustangs' Run-and-Shoot offense, Rossley returned to the Hilltop after one season as the quarterbacks coach of the Atlanta Falcons. The Mustangs went 5-6 in 1992 and Rossley was named Southwest Conference Co-Coach of the Year.

Another significant accomplishment occurred that season when Jason Wolf ended his career with 235 receptions, making him the Southwest Conference's career leader in that category.

Mick Rossley then emerged as the Mustangs' top receiving threat. A sure-handed receiver, Rossley broke Jerry LeVias' school record for receptions in a season when he hauled in 83 passes in 1994.

The winds of change swept across the Hilltop following the 1994 season as SMU prepared to begin its 77th and final season of play in the Southwest Conference after announcing that it would accept an invitation to join the Western Athletic Conference beginning in 1996. Coinciding with the final SWC season was the return of SMU football to the Cotton Bowl. After playing most of their home games the previous six seasons at Ownby Stadium, SMU made "The House That Doak Built" its home stadium in 1995. The Mustangs made their return a memorable one when, in the 1995 season opener against eventual SEC Western Division champion Arkansas, Wilbert Mitchell recovered a Razorback fumble on the SMU two-yard line in the game's final minute to preserve a 17-14 win.

The Mustangs showed they could compete in the Western Athletic Conference by fashioning a 4-4 record in their new league. SMU posted a 30-0 victory at UTEP in 1996, marking the Ponies' first shutout win since 1984. The Mustangs also won at Arkansas, exploded for 52 points against New Mexico and upended crosstown rival TCU 27-24 before a national television (ESPN) audience in the 1996 season finale at the Cotton Bowl.

On Dec. 20, 1996, Mike Cavan was named the 14th head coach of the Mustangs. Cavan led SMU to a 6-5 overall record in 1997, marking the first winning season for the Mustangs since 1986. After a 1-4 start, SMU won five consecutive games, marking its longest winning streak in 12 years. Cavan was named the WAC Coach of the Year by the Fort Worth Star-Telegram for his efforts in 1997.

Among SMU's victims in 1998 was Metroplex rival and bowl-bound TCU on "Doak Walker Day" at the Cotton Bowl. The game was in memory of the Mustangs' greatest player who passed away at the age of 71 on September 27, 1998. SMU dedicated its season to Walker, who won the 1948 Heisman Trophy.

- John Stewart became the first SMU All-American selection since Reggie Dupard in 1985 when the Mustang kicker was honored following the 1993 season. A former walk-on who had never attempted a field goal or extra point prior to his senior season in 1993, Stewart converted on all 23 of his extra point attempts, as well as 13 of his 17 field goal attempts, including a 55-yarder.

- Craig Swann was named the Sports Illustrated National Defensive Player of the Week after he recorded 20 tackles in SMU's 17-14 season-opening win over Arkansas in 1995.

- Quarterback Ramon Flanigan became SMU's all-time leader in total offense (7,437 yards) and touchdowns responsible for (57) with a solid senior season in 1997. He was granted a sixth year of eligibility prior to 1997 by the NCAA.

- Linebacker Chris Bordano was named the 1997 WAC Mountain Division Defensive Player of the Year after leading the team in tackles with 120. Bordano became just the 10th player in SMU history to be named All-Conference three times.

- SMU great Eric Dickerson was inducted into the Professional Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio, in 1999, becoming the fifth Mustang to earn Pro Football Hall of Fame status.

- Defensive end Luke Johnson recorded 11.5 sacks in 1999 while helping lead SMU to a 4-6 record, and concluded his career as the program's all-time sack leader with 22.5 sacks from 1996-99.

- In 1999, the Ponies closed another chapter of Mustang football at the Cotton Bowl and prepared to move into their new on campus home, Gerald J. Ford Stadium, in 2000.

2000s

Sept. 2, 2000 may stand out as the most significant day in the history of the storied SMU football program. That was the date that Mustang football returned to campus with the inaugural game in $60 million Gerald J. Ford Stadium. SMU christened the facility by whipping Big 12 foe Kansas, 31-17, before a sellout crowd of 32,267. It was the first capacity home crowd for Mustang football since 1990.

In 2001, the Mustangs won four of their final seven games and saw the emergence of a pair of underclass stars. True freshman running back ShanDerrick Charles burst onto the scene when he rushed for 243 yards at San Jose State, one yard shy of the school single-game mark. One game later, Charles ran for 212 yards and tied a school record with four touchdowns in a 40-14 win over UTEP. He finished his rookie season with an SMU freshman record 860 yards rushing despite carrying the ball more than once in just seven games. Sophomore cornerback Jonas Rutledge became a big-play threat on defense and special teams. He scored three TDs on kickoff, interception and blocked field goal returns on the way to first-team all-conference honors.

The biggest development of 2001 came on Dec. 5 when former Kansas State defensive coordinator Phil Bennett was named the 15th head coach in school history. Bennett's first season on the Hilltop saw one of the greatest statistical rushing seasons ever produced at SMU as junior back Keylon Kincade rushed 327 times for 1,279 yards with eight 100-yard rushing games. Kincade's attempts number was a school season record while his yardage total and number of 100-yard games ranked third on the SMU season list.

The 2002 campaign was also the last for two of the best players in recent SMU history - tight end John Hampton and linebacker Vic Vilorio. Hampton concluded his career as the program's all-time leader in receptions at his position with 114. Vilorio was SMU's leading tackler during his final three seasons and finished his career ranked eighth on the school's all-time tackles list with 372. He earned All-WAC honors three times.

In 2003, tailback Keylon Kincade rolled on, gaining 1,280 yards. He became just the third player in SMU history to notch multiple 1,000-yard seasons, joining Eric Dickerson and Reggie Dupard. Kincade finished his career in sixth place in the SMU annals with 3,038 yards.

After a 3-8 2004 campaign, the 2005 season brought a new highlight to SMU football history as the Mustangs stampeded into Conference USA. SMU finished the 2005 season with a 5-6 mark, its highest win total in eight seasons. The year was full of highlights like SMU's first win over a ranked team since 1986, a 3-1 record against Bowl teams, and a three-game win streak to end the season - SMU's longest since 1999.

Eric
Dickerson
19

As one of the greatest running backs in college football history, Eric Dickerson's SMU jersey No. 19 was retired at the SMU-TCU game on Nov. 24, 2000.

Dickerson earned All-America honors as a senior in 1982 when he rushed for 1,617 yards and 17 touchdowns on 232 carries (7.0 yards per carry), helping the Mustangs to an 11-0-1 record and a No. 2 finish in the final Associated Press national rankings. He finished third in the Heisman Trophy balloting that year behind Herschel Walker and John Elway as SMU captured the Southwest Conference championship and defeated Pitt, 7-3, in the Cotton Bowl.

A two-time Southwest Conference Player-of-the-Year, the Sealy, Texas, native owns 14 school rushing records, including career yards (4,450), season yards (1,617 in 1982), career touchdowns (47), season touchdowns (19 in 1981) and 100-yard games (26).

Doak
Walker
37

Doak Walker epitomized leadership, sportsmanship, and academic and athletic achievement during his storied career at SMU in the late 1940s. Gracing the covers of numerous national magazines, "The Doaker" was a national phenomenon. The versatile Walker, who also punted, returned punts and kickoffs, and kicked extra points, earned All-America honors in 1947, 1948 and 1949. After starting as a freshman in 1945, he missed the 1946 season due to his service in the Army; however, by his junior season, his exploits on the field had become legendary, and in 1948, Walker became the first junior to win the Heisman Trophy.

In addition to winning the Heisman, Walker was a consensus All-American three times and also won the Swede Nelson National Sportsmanship Award while at SMU.

Forrest
Gregg
73

A Southern Methodist University leader as a student and an alum, Forrest Gregg's No. 73 was retired at halftime of the SMU-San Jose State on Oct. 7, 2000. Gregg was a two-way player on the Mustang football team from 1952-55.

Gregg was a dominant force on both sides of the line as a collegian and earned All-SWC honors as a junior and senior in 1954 and 1955. He also served as SMU co-captain in his final year.

After his career on the Hilltop concluded, Gregg moved on to a 14-year career in the National Football League. He played for the Green Bay Packers for 13 years and closed his NFL career in 1971 with the Dallas Cowboys. While with the Packers, Gregg won a pair of Super Bowl Rings in 1967 and 1968. He set a Green Bay record by playing in 187 consecutive games, was chosen All-Pro eight straight years from 1960-67, played in nine Pro Bowls and was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1977.

When football returned to the Hilltop in 1989, it was natural that Gregg would play a part. He served as head coach of the 1989 & 1990 Mustangs then moved into administration at the school and was also SMU's athletic director (1990-94). He received the Distinguished Alumni Award in the fall of 2000. The award represents the highest honor the university and its Alumni Association can bestow upon an alumnus of the institution.

Lamar
Hunt
80

A great friend of Southern Methodist University and one of its most distinguished alumni, Lamar Hunt's No. 80 football jersey was retired at halftime of the SMU-Tulane game on Sept. 23, 2000. Hunt was a member of the Mustang football team from 1952-55 and wore No. 80 as a wide receiver his senior season.

Since graduating from SMU with a degree in geology, Hunt has had a distinguished career as a sports entrepreneur. He is perhaps best known for helping turn professional football into America's number one sporting pastime and was credited with accidentally naming the NFL's championship game the "Super Bowl." He was an original organizer of the American Football League (AFL), for which the Texas Sportswriters Association named him "Southwesterner of the Year."

In 1960, Hunt founded the Dallas Texans, who later became the Kansas City Chiefs, and was a principal negotiator in the AFL/NFL merger that paved the way for much of the game's modern growth. He still owns the Chiefs today.

For all his efforts, Hunt was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1972. As a tribute to his contributions to professional football, the AFC Championship Trophy carries his name, and in 1993, the NFL gave Hunt its Lifetime Achievement Award.

Raymond Berry
87

One of the greatest wide receivers in National Football League history, Raymond Berry's SMU jersey No. 87 was retired at the SMU-Nevada game on Oct. 28, 2000. Berry was a two-way player who earned two letters for the Mustangs in 1953 and 1954.

The Corpus Christi, Texas, native earned All-Southwest Conference honors and was an Academic All-American during his senior year. He was a 20th round NFL Draft choice of the Baltimore Colts in 1955 and became one of the greatest draft selections in league history.

Berry led the NFL in receptions in 1958, '59 and '60. He helped the Colts win the 1958 league championship by catching 12 passes for 178 yards and a TD in the title game.

When he retired from the game after the 1967 season, Berry was the NFL's all-time leader with 531 catches for 9,275 yards and 68 TDs. He was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1973.

Lance McIlhenny posted a career mark of 34-5-1 at the SMU helm

GERALD MANN

First team All-Southwest Conference selection in 1926 and 1927. Led SMU to a 15-2-1 record in his final two seasons. Nicknamed the "Little Red Arrow" because of his strong, accurate throwing arm in the early 1920s. Member of the first Mustang team to play in Ownby Stadium in 1926. Inducted into the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame in 1969. Eventually went into law and served as the Attorney General for the state of Texas.

LANCE MCILHENNY

SMU and the SWC's all-time winningest quarterback with a combined record of 34-5-1. Guided SMU to its first 11-win season and a second-place ranking in the 1982 final national polls. Three-time All-SWC selection from 1981-83. Led the SWC in passing efficiency with a 133.0 rating in 1982.

HOMECOMING

Homecoming has been part of the SMU tradition since 1926, the first year the Mustangs played at Ownby Stadium. Since then, SMU has played its annual Homecoming game in three other venues, the Cotton Bowl (36 times), Texas Stadium (eight times) and Gerald J. Ford Stadium since 2000. The 2006 SMU Homecoming contest will be held on November 11 at 2 p.m. and will pit the Mustangs against Houston.

Several entertainment and athletic celebrities have served as SMU Homecoming Grand Marshall, including actress Morgan Fairchild in 1981, model Cheryl Tiegs in 1982, pro football and tennis entrepreneur Lamar Hunt in 1983, SMU legend Doak Walker, the 1948 Heisman Trophy winner, in 1990, Forrest Gregg, Pro Football Hall of Famer, in 1991, professional golf great Payne Stewart in 1998 and Pro Football Hall of Fame member Raymond Berry in 2000.

R. GERALD
TURNER
President

As the president of Southern Methodist University since 1995, R. Gerald Turner is leading an era of unprecedented progress at the University. The Campaign for SMU: A Time to Lead raised more than $542 million for academic programs, scholarships, professorships, and student life programs. A new strategic plan is guiding the University's advancement, and the Centennial Master Plan is shaping the physical profile of the campus, including development of a new East Quad.

Beyond the campus, Gerald Turner serves on the boards of the United Way of Dallas, the Methodist Hospital Foundation, the Salvation Army of Dallas, and three publicly traded companies.

President Turner holds leadership positions in several higher education associations. He is co-chair of the Knight Commission on Intercollegiate Athletics and chair of the NCAA Subcommittee on Presidential Leadership of Internal and External Constituencies. He is the winner of the Henry Cohn Humanitarian Award of the Anti-Defamation League of Dallas and the Chief Executive Leadership Award from District Four of the Council for Advancement and Support of Education.

Before joining SMU, President Turner was the chancellor of the University of Mississippi. A native of New Boston, Texas, he earned a B.S. degree in psychology from Abilene Christian University and M.A. and Ph.D. degrees in psychology from the University of Texas at Austin. He and his wife, Gail, a native of Graham, Texas, have two daughters, both of whom live with their husbands in Dallas. Angela is a professional opera singer and the mother of Luke; Jessica, an SMU alumna, is a professional actress.

PAUL ROGERS
Faculty Athletic Representative

Paul Rogers, professor of law and the former dean of the SMU School of Law, is the university's faculty athletic representative and represents the university with Conference USA and the NCAA. Rogers formerly served as president of the Southwest Conference and was more recently on the NCAA Division I Academics/Eligibility/Compliance Cabinet. He was recently appointed to the National Advisory Committee for the National Football Foundation's Honor Society.

In 1988, Dean Rogers was the principal drafter of the University's Manual of Governance for SMU Athletics and became the first chair of the SMU Athletic Council, which establishes academic and administrative policies for student-athletes at SMU. He continues to serve as a member of the council.

Prior to joining the SMU law faculty in 1980, he served on the law faculty at Loyola University of Chicago. He previously practiced law in Pennsylvania. Dean Rogers has earned two degrees (BA, JD) from the University of Texas and an LLM from Columbia University.

Rogers served as dean of the School of Law from 1988-97. Earlier he served as associate dean for academic affairs at the Law School from 1982-86. He has co-authored a leading casebook on antitrust law, now in its third edition, and written numerous articles on antitrust, regulated industries, contracts, commercial law and legal history. An avid baseball historian, he has published three books and a number of articles dealing with the history of baseball. He also is the managing partner of the Plano Blue Sox franchise in the Texas Collegiate Baseball League, which began play in 2004.

He is a member of the board of directors of Dispute Mediation Services and a former Trustee of the Dallas Bar Foundation. Dean Rogers is a fellow of the Dallas Bar, Texas Bar, and the American Bar Foundations. He also served as chair of the Ethics Oversight Committee for Dallas 2012 and is president of the Hall-Ruggles Chapter (Dallas-Fort Worth) of the Society of American Baseball Research.

Rogers has three daughters, Heather, Jillian, and Ruthie, and two grandsons, Baer Heck and Jonathan Van Auken, and a granddaughter, Bozlie Kate Heck.

SMU ADMINISTRATION

Arriving on the Hilltop with over 25 years of experience in athletic administration, Steve Orsini began his tenure as the Director of Athletics at SMU on June 1, 2006.

"Steve Orsini has the right combination of skills to continue moving SMU's athletics program forward," said SMU President R. Gerald Turner. "In addition to his experience building an athletics program similar in size to ours, he brings a love of Dallas and business expertise that will help us build resources and fan support. He shares our commitment to competing at highest level, running a program with integrity, and graduating student athletes who are prepared for life after college. It is a pleasure to have him at SMU and back in Dallas."

"I am here because SMU has a very successful program and is committed to providing all of the ingredients to build upon that success into greater success," said Orsini at his hiring. "We can be successful on a national level. My philosophy on how to have fun in athletics is spelled W-I-N. Our goal in every sport is to be in the top 25 in the nation – and for the ones that already are, I want them to be in the top 10. Collegiate athletics can excite the whole community, build school spirit and really create a sense of community."

THE STEVE ORSINI FILE

Hometown: Hummelstown, Pa.

Education: The University of Notre Dame, 1978, Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration, Majoring in Accounting

Family: He and his wife, Amy, have one daughter, Angela (9).

Steve Orsini Timeline:

2006-Present: Director of Athletics, SMU
2002-2006: Director of Athletics, UCF
1999-2002: Senior Associate Director of Athletics, Georgia Tech
1994-1999: Associate Director of Athletics and Treasurer, U.S. Naval Academy Athletics Association
1993-94: Sales Controller, Fujitsu-ICL Systems
1984-93: Director of Administration/Ticket Manager, Dallas Cowboys
1981-84: Assistant Business Manager & Ticket Manager, Notre Dame
1978-81: Senior Accountant, Deloitte, Haskins & Sells

Orsini has already created excitement for SMU fans by hiring 2001 Associated Press National Coach of the Year Matt Doherty to lead the Mustang men's basketball program.

Orsini came to SMU from the University of Central Florida, where he served as A.D. since June 2002. At UCF, he helped transform UCF into a top athletic program. He guided the Golden Knights to Conference USA membership and established the UCF Athletics Association, Inc., a private, non-profit, direct support organization of the University of Central Florida.

As part of a 70 percent increase in the department's budget during his tenure, Orsini increased funding for all sports while at UCF and the Golden Knights achieved immediate success under his leadership. During the 2004-05 academic year, six UCF teams advanced to NCAA play, including the men's basketball squad, which made its second consecutive trip to the NCAA Tournament. Competing in their last season in the Atlantic Sun Conference, the Golden Knights swept the league's all-sports awards, given to the top program in the conference, for the third straight year. UCF followed that up by advancing to the inaugural Conference USA Football Championship Game and its first-ever bowl appearance in the fall of 2005 after winning the C-USA Eastern Division crown. In all, 25 teams competed in postseason play during his time at UCF, and the Golden Knights posted their highest-ever NACDA Cup finishes in 2003-04 and 2004-05.

Orsini's tenure at UCF was marked by growth. He oversaw major facility additions and renovations at UCF, including the completion of the Wayne Densch Sports Center and the Nicholson Fieldhouse, two of the top athletic facilities in the nation. He also initiated plans and secured financing for a new on-campus football stadium, a softball stadium complex, a rowing boathouse and a convocation center and arena as part of a $270 million mixed-use development - all of which are set to open by the fall of 2007.

Orsini expanded the Golden Knight fan base, with UCF setting all-time records in football season ticket sales and in revenues generated through ticket sales, corporate sponsorships and fundraising. He also saw UCF set attendance records for football and men's and women's basketball contests.

In addition to their successes on the field, Orsini made it a priority that Golden Knight student-athletes achieve success in the classroom as well. During the 2004-05 academic year, a record number of UCF student-athletes earned academic accolades, with the football team boasting the best fall semester team grade point average in the school's Division I-A history.

Prior to his appointment at UCF, Orsini spent three years as senior associate director of athletics for the Georgia Tech Athletic Association. In that capacity he was responsible for administration and business affairs for the Yellow Jackets. He played a pivotal role in the expansion of the football and baseball stadiums and also served as the tournament manager for the 2002 NCAA Final Four in the Georgia Dome.

Orsini, 50, joined the Georgia Tech staff after five years as the Associate Athletics Director and Treasurer at the U.S. Naval Academy Athletic Association. Previously, he spent 10 years in administration with the Dallas Cowboys of the National Football League.

A native of Hummelstown, Pa., Orsini graduated from the University of Notre Dame in 1978 with a degree in Business Administration, majoring in accounting. He was a three-time letter winner at fullback on the Fighting Irish football team and was one of four team captains on the 1977 national championship squad.

After graduation, he spent three years as Senior Assistant Accountant and became a Certified Public Accountant (CPA) in the New York office of the national accounting firm Deloitte, Haskins and Sells.

He began his career in athletics administration in 1981 as Assistant Business Manager and Ticket Manager at Notre Dame and remained in that capacity for three years until leaving to join the Dallas Cowboys as ticket manager in 1984. He became Director of Administration for the Cowboys in 1989, serving in that capacity until 1993 when he went back into private business as the Sales Controller for Fujitsu-ICL Systems, Inc. in Dallas. He resumed his career in athletics administration at the Naval Academy in 1994.

During his time at Navy, Orsini was responsible for all business and legal affairs and helped increase the Athletic Association's revenue by 70 percent. Responsible for the development of the department of External Affairs while at Navy, the program set all-time records at the school for season ticket sales, marketing and sponsorship revenues and fan attendance during his tenure.

Orsini is married to the former Amy Kertesz of South Bend, Ind., and the couple has a nine-year-old daughter, Angela.

What They Are Saying About Steve Orsini:

"Steve Orsini is a winner! His high level of personal and professional integrity coupled with his warm and engaging style will be a big hit in Dallas and with SMU. He had great success early in his career at the Naval Academy, the Dallas Cowboys, and most recently at Central Florida and I'm sure he will continue that success at SMU."

-Roger Staubach

"Steve Orsini is clearly one of the leaders within our industry. Not unlike his highly successful tenure at the University of Central Florida, Steve will provide exciting leadership to SMU."

- Kevin White
Director of Athletics, Notre Dame

"Steve Orsini is a highly regarded athletics administrator who possesses an outstanding set of skills. His wealth of experience and track record of excellence from Notre Dame, the Dallas Cowboys, Navy, Georgia Tech and Central Florida will serve the SMU community extremely well."

- Ian McCaw
Director of Athletics, Baylor University

"Besides being an outstanding athletic administrator, Steve Orsini is a great person. He understands that people are the heart and soul of all that matters and will do all he can to strengthen programs with a focus on the people. His leadership skills liberate people and that is the essence of him."

MEDIA INFORMATION

MEDIA PARKING

A limited number of parking passes are available to media members. Media parking is located in various lots on campus. Admittance to the parking areas is by parking pass only. Admittance will not be granted with a press box or photo credential. A map on the back of the parking pass will direct you to the lot. Parking passes must be requested at least one week prior to the game for mailing purposes, or they may be picked up at the Athletic Media Relations Office prior to game day.

CREDENTIALS

All requests for working press, photo and broadcast credentials should be received by the SMU athletic media relations office no later than Wednesday the week of the game. Requests should be made in writing on company letterhead by the sports editor or director and sent to:

Football Credentials
SMU Athletic Media Relations
Box 750216
Dallas, TX 75275-0216
-or-
FAX: 214-768-2044

After Monday preceding the game, credentials will not be mailed. The media will call window at Gerald J. Ford Stadium is located at the northwest corner of the stadium at the ticket office in the Paul B. Loyd, Jr. All-Sports Center. Credentials may also be picked up at the SMU Media Relations Office in Moody Coliseum the day before games.

MAIN PRESS BOX

The main press box at Gerald J. Ford Stadium is Level 5. Admittance is strictly limited to members of the working press. Two elevators to the press box are located on the west side of the stadium just inside of Gate 2. Priority seating will be determined according to the following criteria: Local daily newspapers covering SMU on a regular basis; Daily newspapers designated by the visiting SID; Local radio and TV stations; National publications; All others on a space available basis.

PRESS BOX SERVICES

The SMU press box is a wireless Internet hot spot. To access the network, open your Internet browser and enter your e-mail address in the appropriate field on the SMU homepage. You do not need an SMU address for the network. Any e-mail address will activate the service. Team and individual statistics, play-by-play, and coaches' and players' quotes for both teams are provided.

SMUMUSTANGS.COM

POSTGAME PROCEDURES

The locker rooms are located in the Loyd All-Sports Center at the north end of Ford Stadium. After a brief cooling down period, SMU head coach Phil Bennett and key Mustang players in the game will be available in the interview room. The interview room is in the SMU football meeting rooms. The SMU locker room will be closed to the media.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Field photographers must wear their Field/Photo credentials at all times for access to the playing field. Photo credentials are limited to representatives from daily newspapers, wire services, television stations, specially approved magazines, and those persons on assignment for the SMU or opposing team's media relations offices. Anyone holding a field credential who is not actively involved in coverage of the game will be escorted from the field. NCAA rules limit photographers to restraining lines clearly marked on the sidelines. Photographers uncertain of sideline restrictions should seek clarification prior to the start of the game from a member of the SMU athletic media relations staff. The photo deck at Gerald J. Ford Stadium is located on the roof of the press box. Take the press box elevator at Gate 2 to Level 5 (press box), then proceed to the stairs at the south end of the press box and take them to the roof. There are covered areas from which to shoot in case of inclement weather. Photographers shooting from the photo deck must have Photo Deck credentials.

TELEPHONES

To order a phone line in the press box, contact:
Lynn Gross, SMU IT Services
214-768-2121
lgross@smu.edu

All media must provide their own instruments. Requests for individual phone lines must be made by noon Wednesday on the week of the game. SMU will provide five courtesy phone lines on Level 5 (press box) on a first-come, first-served basis for general use by the media.

RADIO

Booths are provided for home and visiting radio networks on Level 5. Visiting radio stations should coordinate all logistics through SMU Assistant Athletic Director Brad Sutton. SMU provides ISDN and POTS lines for visiting broadcasters on a reciprocal basis. There is also a dry-pair drop into the visiting locker room.

TELEVISION

SMU's live television appearances are governed by existing Conference USA and NCAA policies. All telecasts must be approved by SMU Athletics Director Steve Orsini. Spotters and statisticians are available for a fee, but the SMU athletic media relations office must be notified at least 10 days in advance.

INTERVIEWS

Members of the media are welcome to attend practice, but please notify the athletic media relations office in advance. The Mustangs practice on the Pettus Practice Fields just west of Gerald J. Ford Stadium and inside the stadium. Check the practice time and site on a daily basis.

Television photographers may shoot warmups and individual drills at the start of practice but will not be allowed to shoot group formations.

All interviews should be coordinated through the athletic media relations office.

Contact Brad Sutton to arrange print and radio interviews with SMU head coach Phil Bennett. He will also do television interviews between 3:00-3:30 p.m. on the field before practice.

Player interviews may be conducted after practice Tuesday through Thursday. No player will be pulled out of practice for an interview. The locker and training rooms are off limits at all times.

WEB SITE/E-MAIL

All SMU notes, releases, rosters and stats can be accessed at SMUMustangs.com. In addition, Brad Sutton e-mails press releases to members of the media. If you wish to be added to the list, please contact Brad at bsutton@smu.edu.

C-USA CONFERENCE CALLS

Conference USA conducts coaches' conference calls each week during the season. Contact the C-USA Media Relations staff at (214) 774-1300 for dates and access numbers.

MEDIA LUNCHEONS

SMU hosts weekly media luncheons featuring Mustang head coach Phil Bennett and select SMU players each Tuesday throughout the season. The lunches, which begin at 12 p.m. central time, are held in the Hall of Champions on the third floor of the Loyd All-Sports Center. Contact Brad Sutton at 214-768-2883 for more information.

All of SMU's games will be broadcast live on the Mustang Sports Network and its flagship station, KTCK 1310 AM, The Ticket. In addition to broadcasting all SMU games in 2006, The Ticket is now the radio home of the Dallas Cowboys.

SMU's broadcasts will be accessible on the Internet at the Mustangs' official athletics website, www.SMUMustangs.com.

Rich Phillips returns for his sixth season as "Voice of the Mustangs" providing play-by-play coverage. In addition to his work with SMU football, Phillips also serves as play-by-play commentator for SMU men's basketball and Dallas Desperados football.

Former SMU defensive standout Craig Swann returns to the airwaves in 2006 in his seventh year as color analyst on the Mustang Football Sports Network. Swann was an All-Southwest Conference linebacker for the Mustangs from 1992-96.

Former Mustang John Hampton enters his first year as sideline reporter for Mustang football. Hampton is the all-time leading receiver among tight ends in SMU history.

2005 HIGHLIGHTS

The 2005 season marked the first time in school history that SMU won both the Iron Skillet (above) and the Mayors' Cup (left) in the same year. To earn the trophies, SMU bested No. 22 TCU 21-10 and Rice 27-7, respectively.

- 3-1 against bowl teams
- Most wins in eight seasons
- Win over ranked team for first time since 1986
- Longest win streak since 1999

SMU received the American Football Coaches Association's 2006 Academic Achievement Award. The school recorded a 100 percent graduation rate when all members of its freshman class of 2000-2001 earned a degree. Although it topped the list for the first time, SMU has been honored in the honorable mention category 11 times through the years (1987, 1994, 1995, 1996, 1997, 1998, 2000, 2001, 2002, 2003, 2005).

Bobby Chase recorded two of the most memorable catches in school history in 2005. The first was a 31-yard reception as time expired (left) to give SMU a 28-27 win at UAB. The play was deemed "The Legend at Legion" by Mustang fans.

The second memorable Chase grab came against UTEP when the 2006 senior caught, lost, and then caught again a 27-yard touchdown (below), leading SMU to a 40-27 victory. The catch was highlighted on ESPN SportsCenter's Top 10 Plays of the Day.
